IN FLANDERS FIELDS

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing fly Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved, and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

_Lt.-Col. John McCrae_
O CANADA

O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all of us command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

Ô CANADA

Ô Canada! Terre de nos aïeux, Ton front est ceint de fleurons glorieux!
Car ton bras sait porter l'épée,
Il sait porter la croix!
Ton histoire est une épopée
Des plus brillants exploits.
Et ta valeur, de foi trempée,
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits,
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.

The Ritual & Awards and Protocol Committee has considered all recommendations, resolutions and enquiries which have been forwarded to Dominion Command and they have been incorporated wherever feasible in this edition of The Ritual, Awards and Protocol Manual. In addition, all resolutions adopted up to and including the 2018 Dominion Convention, have also been included.

The former Ritual and Insignia Manual, Honours and Awards Manual, National Honours Manual and Protocol Manual have all been integrated and revised into this one manual. Legion members at all levels are encouraged to use this integrated manual for information purposes. This information is available on the Legion website - www.legion.ca. Any deviations from this manual should be rare and only due to local circumstances that are unique.

When a guest speaker or Legion official is expected to perform ceremonial duties, it is recommended that, prior to the ceremony, a rostrum or lectern provided with adequate sound and lighting be available. A copy of this manual should also be available for reference purposes.

We trust that Legionnaires will make good use of The Ritual, Awards and Protocol Manual and, in so doing, achieve a standardized method of operation throughout The Royal Canadian Legion.

This manual is issued by the Dominion Command Ritual and Awards and Protocol Committee, under the authority of the Dominion Executive Council.

NOTE: In the back of the manual there are several pieces of music, one of which is titled Rouse. This is, in fact, the actual title of this piece of music, even though it has been erroneously referred to in Legion publications as Reveille. This misnomer has been a source of confusion in conversation with Canadian Armed Forces personnel for many years. In the interest of accuracy and standardization, the Ritual, Awards and Protocol Manual will henceforth use the correct title Rouse for this piece of music.
CHAPTER 1

Legion Dress

GENERAL

101. We as members of The Royal Canadian Legion, project an image when wearing our distinctive dress. It is a positive image that recognizes our organization and demonstrates pride in our country and ourselves. In order to ensure that this image is reinforced, it is of utmost importance that we wear our distinctive dress in the appropriate manner. It is recommended that Legion dress be worn while attending any formal Legion functions that would include:

a. Commemorative ceremonies such as Remembrance Day parades, all ceremonies held at Cenotaphs, Decoration Day and Memorial Day;
b. Church parades;
c. at Tributes and/or funerals of Legion members;
d. at an installation ceremony by those comrades participating in the installation, (ie. The installing officer, the comrades(s) being installed, the Sergeant-at-Arms and members of the Colour Party);
e. Legion Meetings and Conventions;
f. visits by Command Officers to Branches;
g. Legion banquets, especially Remembrance banquets;
h. when representing the Legion at meetings or events other than those of the Legion;
i. other occasions where, in the opinion of the body issuing the invitation or instruction.

It is further recommended that Legion Dress be worn by:

a. all Officers or Executive members occupying a position at the Head Table of any Legion function;
b. members of the Colour Party, including the Party Commander and Parade Commander.

The following instructions also serve as a guide for Legion members which permits them to better understand Legion dress and Legion traditions.
102. Standard Legion Dress. The order of dress for Legion activities is as follows:

a. Navy blue beret with Legion beret crest;

i. Brass Branch numerals may be worn on the beret, parallel to the head band and the first number is to be 3/8” to the wearer’s left of the beret badge;

ii. The beret is worn with the band one inch above the eyebrows, the beret crest over the left eye, the beret pulled back and smoothed to the right side;

Or

b. Headdress acquired during current or previous service with Canadian or Allied Forces including Regular members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (excluding ceremonial and peaked caps) complete with the service cap badge of the unit/regiment/service being served or was served.

This type of headdress may not be worn by Colour Party members including the Colour Party Commander and Parade Commander;

c. Legion Dress – Headdress. It is not normal practice for headdress to be worn indoors with the exception of the Sergeant-at-Arms, Colour Bearer(s), members of the Ladies Auxiliary, by members whose religious doctrine or customs require that the head be covered and by Officers presiding at official functions, such as Installations and may also include those who are being installed.

Some Branches, Zones, Districts and Commands have developed a tradition to wear headdress during opening and closing ceremonies. Although unusual, such traditions are not discouraged by the Royal Canadian Legion. Where employed, these practices will be at the call of the Senior Officiating Officer;

d. Legion headdress is to be worn at all outside ceremonial events when Legion dress is being worn;

e. When headdress is worn inside a building on appropriate ceremonial occasions, the protocol for wear is the same for men and women;

f. Navy blue blazer, complete with the appropriate Legion blazer crest on the left-hand breast pocket and Legion buttons on the front and on the sleeves. A Regimental Service Blazer Badge of the unit/regiment/service being served or was served or a Royal Canadian Mounted Police Blazer Badge may be worn on the lower right side pocket of the Legion Blazer. If for any reason the wearing of the Regimental Badge or Royal Canadian Mounted Police Badge on the lower right side pocket would appear to bring discredit to the unit/regiment/service, then and only then, would the Badge be allowed to be worn on the lower left side pocket.

g. A Veteran sew on scroll may be worn on the Legion blazer by all Legion members who qualify as a Veteran as described in Section 101.2 of our GBL’s. The scroll is authorized for wear on the Legion blazer on the left-hand breast pocket directly below the Legion blazer crest.

h. Black shoes, black socks, grey trousers for males and black shoes, dark grey hose, grey knee length skirts or slacks for females. Black shoulder strap purses may be carried on parade and small stud or keeper earrings are appropriate for females;

i. Plain white shirt and the official Legion long striped tie;

j. White gloves are worn by comrades participating at ceremonies.

Note: This manual describes Legion dress only and not civilian dress. Civilian dress including headdress is addressed through Branch House Rules.

103. Summer Dress. This order of dress may be worn in Canada from the 1st day of May to the last day of September each year in accordance with climatic conditions. Dress for events may be determined in accordance with climatic conditions at all times throughout the year. Summer dress should be worn on occasions where, in the opinion of the body issuing the invitation or instruction, the wearing of summer dress would be appropriate. This would include Colour Parties. Summer dress is the same as for the standard Legion dress except that blazers are not worn, ties are optional, a Legion shirt badge is displayed on the shirt pocket, and no epaulettes, shoulder badges, or medals are to be worn. Undress Service Ribbons may be worn.

104. Formal Dress. From time to time, Legion Officers are called upon to attend formal military or civilian events. Some invitations call for Black Tie and others call for White Tie. Tuxedo/Dinner Jacket attire does not properly identify the Officers as Legion representatives. While Standard Legion dress qualifies as Association Dress, the wearing of blues and greys with standard medals and with long Legion tie, pocket badges and name tags, etc., does not fit the normal requirement of ‘formality’ for these occasions. Dominion Executive Council has authorized the following as optional Legion Dress for all ‘formal’ occasions, military or civilian, where black tie or white tie formal dress is called for:

a. Legion blazer including Legion left breast pocket crest;
b. One Legion lapel badge + Canadian Armed Forces Service pin (as applicable), worn on left lapel;
c. Canadian Honours, i.e., Order of Canada neckwear, lapel badge (as appropriate);
d. Minister of Veterans Affairs Decoration (as appropriate);
e. Miniature Service Medals;
f. White formal shirt w/standard fold-down collar;
g. Black/white formal bow tie;
h. Black cummerbund;
i. Dark suspenders may be worn;
j. Grey trousers;
k. Black socks;
l. Black shoes;
m. Ladies – as above but including optional dark hose and formal length grey skirt;
n. Legion or military association headdress is appropriate but optional with formal Legion dress;
o. Association right pocket badge not recommended with formal dress;
p. Name badges and commemorative or support the troops pins are not to be worn on the right lapel of formal Legion dress.
105. ACCOUTREMENTS. Items that are included with Legion dress are as listed below:

a. Lapel and blazer badges with appropriate scrolls are to be worn by members;
b. A Legion name tag may be worn on the right side of the Legion blazer above Legion medals;
c. Only one Legion lapel badge shall be worn on the left lapel of the blazer. A Canadian Armed Forces Service lapel pin may also be worn to the left of the Legion lapel badge
d. The wearing of one embroidered or metal Canadian Specialist Skill Badge of choice that has been earned by the member while serving in the CAF, RCMP or as a First Responder, or who has honourably served in the Commonwealth or Allied Forces, is authorized for wear on the left side of Legion Dress centered immediately above Service Medals/Undress Ribbons;
e. From time to time commemorative or celebratory pins may be authorized for wear only for a specified time. These items shall be the only pins worn on the right lapel of the Legion blazer and shall be parallel to the Legion badge;
f. A parade commander, colour party commander or sergeant-at-arms may wear a red sash. The sash is worn over the right shoulder across the body to the left hip.
Other than the Legion Badge, no other items are to be worn on the sash;
g. Overcoats may be worn in inclement weather;
h. A parade commander may authorize a parade to remove their blazers when considered necessary and appropriate.
See Section 103 – Summer Dress.

LADIES AUXILIARY

106. Dress for members of the Ladies’ Auxiliary is under the jurisdiction of Provincial Commands.

THE POPPY

107. The Poppy is worn by Legion members during the annual Remembrance period which commences the last Friday in October and ends immediately following Remembrance Day.
Other occasions when the Poppy may be worn are during special Remembrance services such as a service at a Legion Convention, The Battle of the Atlantic, The Battle of Britain, etc. The Poppy is also authorized for wear by Legion Colour Parties when on parade and by members attending funeral services for veterans or ordinary members.
108. The Lapel Poppy is worn on the left lapel immediately above the Legion lapel badge when wearing Standard Legion Dress.

109. The Lapel Poppy is worn on the shirt, immediately above and centred on the shirt badge when wearing Summer Dress.

110. When faced with inclement weather the Lapel Poppy is worn on the left side of the outer garment close to the heart.

THE RED MAPLE LEAF

111. The Red Maple Leaf may be worn during the Legion Tribute at the funerals of Ladies Auxiliary members and Legion members who were not veterans or ordinary members. The Red Maple Leaf is worn in the same manner as the Lapel Poppy. This is the only occasion where the Red Maple Leaf is authorized to be worn or utilized.

LEGION MEMBER APPOINTED TO SPECIAL DUTIES

112. There may be an occasion and the honour for a Legion member to be assigned to fulfil special duties and responsibilities. As such, this may be an exceptional honour and privilege which not only recognizes the person assigned to these duties but also recognizes the Legion as an organization. When a member is approached to take on these duties contact is to be made with Dominion Command to obtain the manner in which Legion dress is worn.

SERVICE ORDERS, DECORATIONS AND MEDALS

113. Service medals should be worn above the left breast pocket and on full Legion dress on such Legion occasions as:

a. Commemorative ceremonies such as Remembrance Day parades, all ceremonies held at cenotaphs, Decoration Day and Memorial Day;
b. Church parades;
c. At tributes and/or funerals of Legion members;
d. At an initiation ceremony by those comrades participating in the initiation, for example - the Presiding Officer, the Chairman of the Membership Committee and the comrade reciting the Purposes and Objects of The Royal Canadian Legion;

f. Opening and closing of a convention;
g. Visits by command officers to Branches;
h. Legion banquets, especially Remembrance banquets;
i. Other occasions where, in the opinion of the body issuing the invitation or instruction, the wearing of service medals would be appropriate. A General Meeting of the Branch may be considered such an occasion.

114. If medals are not available, Undress Service Ribbons may be worn on Legion Dress.

NOTE: It is an offence under Sections 419 A and B of the Criminal Code of Canada for anyone, other than the recipient, to wear a uniform of the Canadian Armed Forces or Service Insignia, such as medals, ribbons, badges, chevrons or other decoration. It is also an offence for anyone to wear any imitation of the above if it is likely to be mistaken for the said uniform, or service insignia, etc.

ORDER OF PRECEDENCE

115. The order of precedence in which service medals shall be worn is under the jurisdiction of The Chancellery at Government House. From time to time, the order of precedence is amended. In the event there are questions as to the wearing of a medal, members are advised to communicate with The Chancellery regarding such matters at 1-800-465-6890 or write:
116. Miniature Medals. These medals may be worn on the Legion blazer on social occasions such as Legion banquets, but are not to be worn on parade.

LEGION MEDALS

117. Legion medals are worn on full Legion dress on the right breast in order of precedence from wearer’s centre to right, in a single row and in a horizontal position that corresponds to the position of service medals which are worn on the left breast (also see Section 121).

118. The ribbons for Legion medals are 1½" wide and have a visible length of 2".

119. Legion medals should be worn on such Legion occasions as described in Section 113 of this manual.

120. Medals awarded by the Legion may only be worn by the members to whom they are awarded and may only be worn on Legion uniforms or formal Legion dress described in Section 104 in the order of their seniority of office and in the following order:

b. Dominion level Past Office medals;

122. Photograph—Legion Medals.
A photograph depicting seven Legion medals is shown on page 166 of this manual. The photograph identifies the medals and shows the manner and precedence in which they are worn which is as follows:

- a. The MSM with Palm Leaf;
- b. A Past Provincial Office medal with a Vice-President bar;
- c. A District Past Office medal with a District Bar;
- d. A Zone Past Office medal with a Zone Bar;
- e. A Branch Past President medal;
- f. A Branch Past Office medal with a 1st Vice-President Bar;

123. Only one Past President, one Past Commander and one Past Office medal from each command level or branch shall be worn, regardless of whether a member has served at more than one command or branch.

124. All Legion medals received may be worn. These medals must be properly mounted and overlapped and in a single row.

125. Offices held at the various command levels of the Legion are designated by bars which may be attached to the ribbon of Past Office medals. Only one bar shall be worn for a specific office at each level, even though the member may have held the office for more than one term, or at more than one command or branch.

126. Branch Service Medal and L.A. Service Medal. These medals are a tangible, visible method of recognizing the significant efforts of hard-working, behind-the-scenes members. See Section 270.

127. Awards from Veterans’ and Other Organizations. Awards received by Legion members from veterans’ and other organizations as authorized by Dominion Command are worn on the right breast after all Legion awards. These awards are worn in the order they are received. (Also see Section 243).

NOTE: Dominion Executive Council has confirmed that medals issued for “positions served, years of service, etc.” in Veterans’ and other organizations, other than the Legion, and the Canadian Cadet Medal of Excellence, are not permitted to be worn on Legion Dress.

128. Commemorative Medals. From time to time governments and organizations produce commemorative medals. Approved for wear on Legion dress are the Dutch Medal (Medal of Remembrance in relation to the liberation of Holland) and the Normandy Medal (Medal of the Jubilee of Liberty), which were issued in commemoration of the 60th Anniversary of the Liberation of the Netherlands and The Allied landing at Normandy. Also included in this category is the Canadian Cadet Medal of Excellence. They are to be worn on the right breast, after all Legion Medals, in the order in which they were received. See Section 120 for order of precedence. Medals of this nature that have not been approved by the Government of Canada or Dominion Command shall not be worn on Legion dress.

129. The Canadian Cadet/Junior Ranger Medal of Excellence. This medal is governed by each cadet corps/squadron and can be worn on Legion dress. The awarding of this medal is based upon a recognized national standard established by the Canadian Armed Forces. The corps/squadron CO is the approving authority for the awarding of this medal. It is awarded to one cadet per corps/squadron annually in recognition of individual endeavors in citizenship which enhance the aims and objectives of the Canadian Cadet movement.

ORDER OF CANADA AND SIMILAR ORDERS

130. From time to time, Legion members may receive high decorations such as the Order of Canada and similar Orders. While instructions for wear are included with such Orders, the Dominion Executive Council has approved the following in order to acknowledge the achievements of these members:

a. Neck badge(s) and Stars may be worn with Legion dress, on occasions when the wearing of medals is appropriate. They are not to be worn on Legion dress when the wearing of medals is not appropriate;

b. Lapel badge(s), for such decorations, may be worn, on the left lapel, on all occasions, whether the full size or miniature insignia or undress service ribbons are being worn or otherwise;

c. On the occasion of promotions within an Order, only the most senior level lapel badge may be worn on Legion dress;

CHAPTER 2

Awards

GENERAL

201. Awards. Members may be selected and recommended for Legion awards at the Branch, Zone, District, Provincial and Dominion levels. Branches, Zones and Districts must submit applications to their Provincial Command for approval. Provincial Command Honours and Awards Committees are responsible for the following action:

a. Screening applications received from Branches, Zones and Districts;

b. Ensuring that the citations, for awards that must be approved by the Dominion Command Ritual and Awards and Protocol Committee, provide detailed and clear information with dates that addresses the achievements of the member that merit the award; and clearly sets out what the member has done SINCE the last award;

c. Ensuring all of the information that is required has been provided such as minutes and all areas of the form have been completed;

d. Ensuring that copies of applications for previous awards have been included (i.e. Life Membership and MSM/MSA);

e. Posthumous awards will only be granted when the original motion, as passed by the Branch, Zone, District or Command concerned, is dated prior to the death of the intended recipient;

f. The date that appears on the award is the date it was approved by the awarding authority;

g. Members who are employees of the Legion are eligible to receive Legion honours and awards, providing the award is for service rendered other than for duty as a paid employee.

h. The age and health of the member being nominated for such awards are not a consideration.

i. Ensuring that if an application has been returned for further information, that the added information is obtained and attached to the original application submission and re-submitted to Dominion Command.

NOTE: It is recommended that the presentation of the award occurs within three months of the award being received BY THE BRANCH, ZONE, DISTRICT OR COMMAND.
AWARDS: LEGION MEMBERS

MERITORIOUS SERVICE MEDAL (MSM)

202. This is the highest award that can be granted to, Ordinary, Associate or Affiliate Voting Members. It is normal practice that when consideration is being given to recommending a person for an MSM, that the normal progression for major awards has been followed and that the person has previously received a Life Membership.

203. Approval of the MSM is the responsibility of the Dominion Command Ritual and Awards and Protocol Committee.

204. Criteria. Comrades who have the responsibility of recommending a fellow comrade for the MSM must ensure that the person being nominated is indeed worthy of consideration and that all of the accomplishments since the last award, including dates, are included in the application. The citation that accompanies the nomination must be based on the activities of the individual and these activities must exceed the standard that is expected of a member.

205. In order to determine if an individual should be nominated for the MSM those comrades responsible for the nomination must ask themselves the following questions:

a. How long has the member being considered been a member of the Legion?

Note: For example, the criteria for receiving a Life Membership is that a member has provided outstanding Legion service for ten years of continuous membership. A minimum of five years should have elapsed between the award of a Life Membership and the application for an M.S.M.
b. Flowing from the above are specific factors that must be considered when determining if a nomination for the MSM is justified. The question that must be answered is - regardless of the offices held, what are the outstanding services that set the member apart from all of the others? Examples of answers to this question could be:

i. three to five years as a Service Officer with a track record of demonstrated success in obtaining the appropriate assistance for those in need;

ii. activities on behalf of veterans and their dependants who are disabled or have special needs;

iii. obtaining, organizing and distributing hospital comforts and visiting shut ins over a period of years;

iv. taking on the responsibility for Legion drop in centres, meals on wheels, cultural and recreational or similar activities on behalf of the elderly, shut ins or disabled;

v. creating, organizing and implementing youth programs that provide positive experiences for young adults and demonstrate that the Legion is a vital part of the community;

vi. planning, organizing and managing the Poppy Campaign over a period of years;

vii. planning and organizing events or activities to build or upgrade Legion facilities such as branches and housing;

viii. identifying a need in the community or the Legion and taking the action required to fill the need;

ix. acting as the point of contact between the Legion and other community organizations to ensure that efforts are coordinated when the task is too great for one organization;

x. organizing branch resources to assist the community during a disaster or other pressing need;

xi. contributions of personal sacrifice, time or professional expertise that has brought great credit to the branch and to the community, or has enhanced the image of the Legion within the community;
xii. as stated above, these are but a few examples of the type of effort that should be considered when recommending a comrade for an MSM.

206. In short, when contemplating these nominations the overriding consideration is - does the service to the Legion so exceed that of any other member that it can only be properly recognized by bestowing the MSM?

207. The nominations must be approved at an Executive or General Meeting of the Branch or Command and prepared using the Dominion Command Form 800281 (latest edition). The following information is to be included on the application form:

a. The membership strength of the Branch must be shown, as service in a small or large community may have an impact;

b. The date and type of meeting where the award was approved, ensuring that a copy of the minutes of the meeting where the application was approved are attached to the application form. The minutes should include the name(s) of the member(s) and the award(s) being applied for. If it is the wish to keep the name(s) of the applicant(s) confidential, an ‘in camera’ provision could be utilized at an Executive Meeting to discuss the application(s). The minutes of the ‘in camera’ portion of the meeting are to be included with the rest of the Executive Meeting minutes when submitting the application;

c. The application must be completed, signed and submitted in accordance with any specific Provincial Command rules respecting honours and awards;

d. The application must be signed by two senior Branch Officers, preferably the President and the Secretary;

e. When completed, the application, in the number of copies required by the applicable Provincial Command, is to be submitted to that Command;

f. An application from a Zone or District must be approved at a properly constituted meeting of the Zone or District, completed, signed and submitted as noted above.
208. The Citation. Care must be taken in preparing the citation. It must be remembered that the members of the Dominion Command Ritual and Awards and Protocol Committee have only the citation on which to base decisions. Therefore, complete details, including dates, must be provided of the outstanding services rendered in the Legion and any community service by the member being recommended, since the last award. A copy of the citation for the previously awarded Life Membership must accompany the application for the MSM. If it is not available, please explain.

209. The MSM medal, lapel badge, plaque, certificate and a distinctive card accompany the award.

210. The MSM can only be awarded once, regardless of the level.

MERITORIOUS SERVICE AWARD (MSA)

211. This award is granted to eligible members of the Ladies Auxiliary who have rendered outstanding meritorious service to The Royal Canadian Legion. This is the highest award which can be made to a member of the Ladies Auxiliary. The criteria used to determine if an MSM is warranted is also used when considering MSA nominations on behalf of members of the Ladies Auxiliary.

212. Approval of the MSA is the responsibility of the Dominion Command Ritual and Awards and Protocol Committee.

213. The nomination must be approved at an Executive or General Meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Branch and prepared using the Dominion Command Form 800281 (latest edition). The following information is to be included on the application form:

The minutes should include the name(s) of the member(s) and the award(s) being applied for. If it is the wish to keep the name(s) of the applicant(s) confidential, an ‘in camera’ provision could be utilized at an Executive Meeting to discuss the application(s). The minutes of the ‘in camera’ portion of the meeting are to be included with the rest of the Executive Meeting minutes when submitting the application;

c. The application must be completed, signed and submitted in accordance with any specific Provincial Command rules respecting honours and awards;

d. The application must be signed by two senior Ladies Auxiliary Officers, preferably the President and the Secretary;

e. When completed, the application, in the number of copies required by the applicable Provincial Command, is to be submitted to that Command;

f. An application from a Zone or District must be approved at a properly constituted meeting of the Zone or District, completed, signed and submitted as noted above.

214. The Citation. Care must be taken in preparing the citation. It must be remembered that the members of the Dominion Command Ritual and Awards and Protocol Committee have only the citation on which to base decisions. Therefore, complete details, including dates, must be provided of the outstanding services rendered in the Legion and any community service by the member being recommended, since the last award. A copy of the citation for the previously awarded Life Membership must accompany the application for the MSA. If it is not available, please explain

215. The MSA medal, brooch, plaque, certificate and a distinctive card accompany the award.

216. The MSA can only be awarded once, regardless of the level.

Palm Leaf to the MSM and MSA

217. The Palm Leaf can only be awarded to a member who has been previously awarded the MSM or MSA. The Palm Leaf recognizes further outstanding service. Deeds that were recognized when the MSM or MSA was awarded are not considered, as these achievements have been recognized.
218. When considering a comrade for a Palm Leaf, the criteria to be used to evaluate the activities of the comrade are as shown in Section 204. Obviously, the activities being considered must be at least equal to or exceed those which earned the comrade the MSM or MSA. It is generally considered that a period of 5 years minimum has elapsed between the awarding of an MSM/MSA and the application for a Palm Leaf.

219. Approval of the Palm Leaf is the responsibility of the Dominion Command Ritual and Awards and Protocol Committee.

220. The nomination must be approved at an Executive or General Meeting of the Branch or Ladies Auxiliary to the Branch and prepared using the Dominion Command Form 800281 (latest edition). The following information is to be included on the application form:

Zone or District, completed, signed and submitted as noted above.

221. The Citation. Care must be taken in preparing the citation. It must be remembered that the members of the Dominion Command Ritual and Awards and Protocol Committee have only the citation on which to base decisions. Therefore, complete details, including dates, must be provided of the outstanding services rendered in the Legion and any community service, since the last award, by the member being recommended.

A copy of the citation for the previously awarded MSM or MSA must accompany the application for the Palm Leaf. If not available, please explain.

The Life Membership must be recommended by the comrade’s Branch and approved by the applicable Provincial Command. The period of membership that must be achieved is 10 consecutive years immediately prior to the date of the nomination. The ten years service does not have to be at the same branch. There is a requirement to pay Dominion and Provincial Command per capita tax as shown in the table that follows, once proof of age has been established to the satisfaction of the Branch. 226. A Life Member of the Legion shall be recognized as a Life Member regardless of the place of residence. Upon transferring from one Branch to another, a Life Member may be required to pay Branch dues, but shall not be required to pay either Dominion or Provincial per capita tax.

227. The provisions set forth in this section for Life Membership shall not affect the validity of the Life Membership granted to members of The Great War Veterans Association of Newfoundland before the said Association ceased to exist. Those said members shall be and are Life Membership of the Legion.
228. When a Life Membership is granted, the Branch is recognizing a member’s outstanding service and devotion to the Purposes and Objects of the Legion. Therefore, the citation accompanying the application must provide complete details (including dates or spans of time) of the outstanding service (which must include service to the Legion and any community service) rendered by the member being recommended for the award.

229. Provincial Commands are the approving authority for Life Membership. A membership card indicating “LIFE”, lapel badge a certificate suitable for framing (no longer has to be purchased separately) will be issued by Dominion Command. A Life Member blazer crest and plaque are available through the Legion Supply System.

230. If a member dies between the time a Life Membership is approved by the Provincial Command and submission to Dominion Command, no per capita tax is required. This means that the Branch may still recognize the recipient of the Life Membership posthumously, by presenting the deceased member’s family with a Life Membership Certificate.

Note: A branch will not be refunded if a Life Member dies after the per capita tax has been submitted to Dominion Command.

HONORARY LIFE MEMBERSHIP

231. Any person may be granted an Honorary Life Membership by the awarding of a Life Membership into the Royal Canadian Legion by the Dominion Executive Council for outstanding national service. No per capita tax shall be payable in connection with HONORARY Life Membership. A lapel pin and certificate that is suitable for framing are provided by Dominion Command.

CERTIFICATE OF MERIT

232. A certificate of Merit may be granted to Legion members and members of the Ladies’ Auxiliaries in recognition of service rendered to or on behalf of the Legion. There are three types of these certificates:

b. As a means to recognize contributions made by members in the intervening years before they would be eligible for consideration for a Life Membership or the Meritorious Service Medal;

c. To recognize a particular service rendered by a member to a Command or Branch where the service may have been of short duration, but of such a high order, that some form of recognition is considered necessary.

234. The Certificate of Merit is obtained through the Legion Supply System,

Branch level - English, 700133, French, 700159;

Provincial Command level - English, 700132, French, 700158.

235. Certificates approved by Dominion Command are authorized by the Dominion Command Ritual and Awards and Protocol Committee.

The award is in the form of a certificate that is suitable for framing.

LEGIONNAIRE OF THE YEAR AWARD

238. The Legionnaire of the Year Award is another award available to recognize the hard work of many volunteers within our Branches. Legion Branches have dedicated members who volunteer countless hours each year towards their success. Branches are encouraged to choose one of their members each year from amongst these valued volunteers to recognize them as ‘Legionnaire of the Year.’

The criteria for this award is left to the discretion of each individual Branch. A high quality plaque for such an occasion is available through the Dominion Command Legion Supply.

AWARDS: PAST LEGION SERVICE

PAST OFFICE MEDALS

259. As a means of recognizing the service of comrades to the Legion a method of acknowledging their dedication to our Purposes and Objects was implemented and has been in place since the organization was formed. The recognition of these comrades is achieved through the awarding of Past Office medals and bars.

260. Eligibility. To be eligible for a Past Office award, the member must complete one full term of office. However, should the term of office not be completed, the member may, providing at least 50% of the term plus one day has been completed, be eligible to receive the award. The circumstances under which this provision applies are:

a. An appointment to another office; or,
b. The inability of the comrade to carry on with the duties due to a transfer, relocation, ill health or similar valid reason.

261. Any member, who has replaced an office holder, and completes at least 50% of a term plus one day, is entitled to a Past Office medal.

262. A member is eligible for only one Past Office medal at any one level of the Legion regardless of the number of offices held at that level. The other offices that the member may hold are recognized through the provision of “bars” to the one Past Office medal.

263. All, Ordinary, Associate and Affiliate-Voting members are eligible for Past Office awards.

BARS TO PAST OFFICE MEDALS

264. A member is only eligible for one bar for each office held, even though the member may have held the office for more than one term.

265. A member holding a Past President or Past Commander medal is eligible for the Maple Leaf bar to this medal upon completion of a complete second term in office. The terms do not have to be consecutive.

268. Dominion Command Standing Committee Members who are not and have not been members of Dominion Executive Council receive a Dominion Past Committee Member Medal with a Dominion Bar, and a Committee Bar for the Standing Committee that they serve on. This medal is awarded to members of the Branch/Post and of Ladies Auxiliaries to the Branch to recognize the significant work accomplished by their many members, outside of, or prior to their acceptance to leadership positions. The qualification for the awarding of the Service Medal is to be a significant level of service provided by the member to their Branch/Post or L.A. Although this medal is intended to be awarded to members who have not been members of the Branch/Post or L.A. Executive, it may also be awarded in addition to any awards/medals previously received by the member for exemplary service over and above any responsibilities required for any offices held. However, holding an Executive position does not in itself justify the award, as once a person assumes a position, the member is expected to perform the duties of that position to the best of their ability. Recipients of this medal are also permitted to wear any earned past office Legion bars on this medal. This medal is to be senior to all Commemorative Medals and junior to the Branch/Post and/or L.A. Past Office Medal. The recommending and approving authority is to be the Branch/Post or L.A. Executive Committee and/or the General Membership. It is not the intent to have the L.A. present an L.A. MEDALS, BARS, LAPEL BADGES AND CERTIFICATES

A bar for leadership is available for various levels within the Legion. Leadership encompasses the Leadership, Training and Development involved in the development of leaders of our organization at all levels. The Leadership bar is intended for chairmen of all training, development and leadership committees.

At various levels of our organization, bars are available for Honourary Treasurer, Honourary Secretary and Honourary Secretary/Treasurer. They are for appointed positions. The bar for Secretary, Treasurer and Secretary Treasurer are for elected positions.

The illustrations that follow depict the medals, bars, lapel badges and certificates that are available for members, the Ladies Auxiliary and presentation to the general public. The illustrations show the product number, the name and an image of the item.

The United States Commands became an Eastern and Western Zone of USA respectively in June 2000 at the 38th Dominion Convention held in Halifax, Nova Scotia. The branches/posts in these two zones have the option of using either word; therefore, the medals and bars for service at a branch or post will continue to be used.

CANADIAN HONOURS AND AWARDS

GENERAL

276. The Government of Canada has created a system of Canadian Honours and Awards, to reward those deserving Canadians who have enriched the lives of others or who have placed themselves at risk to save or protect the lives of other human beings. All Legion members are eligible to receive these honours.

PURPOSE

277. The purpose of this section of the manual is to assist members of The Royal Canadian Legion in the preparation and submission of nominations for such Canadian Honours to be awarded to Legion Members for their service to, or in representation of Canada. The purpose of this section is also to make our members aware of the various Canadian Honours and Awards available for deserving members.

278. The Ritual and Awards Committee is available to assist in the preparation and submission of nominations for these Canadian Honours. This Committee’s purpose is to be instructive and supportive of all submissions that may be received through the Legion and to ensure that Legion volunteers are recognized for their good works in the wider community.

HONOURS

279. Canadian Honours and Awards are awarded to recognize extraordinary achievement and the recipients of these honours must have performed an act of service which is truly outstanding. The following are just a few of the most notable honours available:

a. Decorations for Bravery
b. Meritorious Service Decorations
c. Order of Canada
d. Sovereign’s Medal For Volunteers
e. Minister of Veterans Affairs Commendation ORDERS

THE ORDER OF CANADA

GOVERNOR GENERAL’S AWARDS

280. For a complete list of the Canadian Honours and Awards available through the office of the Chancellery of Honours at Rideau Hall, visit their website at www.gg.ca under the honours section.

NOMINATION PROCESS

281. Nominations may be initiated at any level of the Legion organization. While nominations for Canadian Honours and Awards may be submitted by any person or group directly to the approving authority, (Rideau Hall or Veterans Affairs Canada (VAC)) without being vetted by any intermediate agency, experience obtained from both the Department of National Defence and the RCMP has proven that an ‘in house’ reviewing system greatly enhances the recognition of the nominations. It is for this reason that Dominion Command will accept nominations for such awards through the Legion Honours and Awards system for review.

282. Any person or group is welcome to nominate a deserving individual as possible candidate for appointment to the Order of Canada, or as candidate for the Decorations for Bravery, Meritorious Service Decorations or Governor General’s Sovereign’s Medal For Volunteers.

Nominations presented to the Chancellery of Honours that meet the eligibility criteria are studied thoroughly. They are then reviewed by an independent committee that makes its recommendation to the governor general.

283. Recipients of Canadian Honours and Awards are limited and not everyone nominated is necessarily selected. It is therefore important that as much background information as possible is given by the nominator as to the worthiness of the candidate. Relevant biographical information should be approximately 500 words and include the impact that the applicant has made within his or her community and organization. It should be noted that it is a baseline principle of Canadian Honours policy that individuals should not receive duplicate recognition for the same accomplishment.

NOMINATION FORMS

284. Nomination forms may be obtained from The Chancellery of Honours at Rideau Hall at www.gg.ca or by calling 1-800-465-6890 for all but the VAC Minister's Commendation which may be found at the VAC website: www.veterans.gc.ca. Nomination forms for the VAC Minister's Commendation may also be picked up at any VAC district or regional office.

ENDORSEMENT

285. All nominations require the name of the individual being nominated and the name of the nominator. In addition, a letter from an organization or individual supporting the nomination is to be included with the application. These persons will be contacted by the approving authority at Rideau Hall or VAC. It is important to understand that the Canadian Honours and Awards system applies to all Canadians and care must be taken by Legion nominators so that submissions are not viewed by the approving authority as having an undue bias towards our members. For this reason it is strongly recommended that, when possible, supporting endorsements and documents of the nomination should be provided from sources outside of the Legion.

PRIME MINISTER AWARDS

286. Further Canadian volunteer awards are also available to deserving Legion members through the office of the Prime Minister. Application forms and information concerning these awards may be found at www.pm.gc.ca.
Protocol

In any organization, the observance of established normalities of protocol enhances and promotes the image of the organization. Given the autonomous nature of the Royal Canadian Legion, a set of recommended protocol guidelines, consistently applied across all levels of our organization, will bring recognition and respect.

Protocol is essentially the observance of official formality and etiquette. It is centuries old and modern as today. It is based on human understanding and the experience of interrelationships and provides stability and dignity in the conduct of affairs between people and nations. When applied to any situation at any level, protocol is the rule of observing etiquette and adhering to the order of precedence and correct procedure. It considers official ceremonies, privileges and ensures proper recognition and respect for position and office.

In this section of the manual, we include Legion Meetings, Order of Precedence, Parades, Banquets and Protocol at Functions. Other protocol regarding such items as Legion Dress, Initiation of Members, Installation of Officers, Ceremonies and Events, Legion Funerals, Flags and Colour Parties etc., can be found in other sections of this manual.

LEGION MEETINGS

301. Displaying the Picture. It is the mandatory to display pictures of the Sovereign in a place of honour in Legion halls and on formal occasions such as a convention.

302. The picture is to be fixed to the centre of the wall directly behind the chair that the Chairman occupies during a meeting. Should this position not be practical, the picture is to be fixed to the wall that can be described as the wall of the room opposite the Chairman. A picture of the Sovereign may also be placed at the back of the hall in addition to the one affixed to the centre of the wall directly behind the Chairman. This picture should be fixed to the wall centred in the same position as the one located behind the Chairman at the front of the hall. In doing so, this will eliminate those at the head table and on the stage of the hall from doing an about turn during closing ceremonies.

303. Should a picture of the consort be displayed, this picture and the picture of the Sovereign will be centred on the selected wall. The two pictures are to be displayed at the same level and the picture of the Sovereign will be on the left when looking at the two pictures.

OPENING CEREMONY

304. Emblems. In addition to the above, the emblems of the Legion shall be suitably displayed as follows:

a. The poppies in a bowl in front of the chairman;
b. The Legion badge on the front of the lectern;
c. The torch where it is plainly visible.

305. Colour Party. The Colour party shall be in a position of readiness at the rear of the hall.

306. Opening Ceremony. The text that follows is the Ritual for the Opening Ceremony.

THE CHAIRMAN:

The meeting will stand at attention.

Sergeant-at-Arms, march on the Colours.
(For the details of colour party procedure, see Figure 3-1)

We will now sing our national anthem.

Before we proceed to the consideration of the business which has brought us together, let us pause to think reverently of those of our comrades who by sea, by land and in the air, laid down their lives for their Sovereign and country. Their sacrifice will ever inspire us to labour on, to the end that those who survive and need our aid may be assured of assistance, and that the country in which we live, and for which they died may ever be worthy of the sacrifice they made.

During The Silence, we will remember our fallen comrades and those who have passed on since we last gathered together. (The names of the persons are to be spoken)

LAST POST (optional).

THE SILENCE

LAMENT The playing of the Lament is optional; however, if played it is to occur after The Silence.

Rouse (optional).

307. The Act of Remembrance. The text that follows is the Ritual for the Act of Remembrance.

THE CHAIRMAN ONLY:

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

THE MEMBERS ONLY:

We will remember them.

THE CHAIRMAN:

Sergeant-at-Arms, deposit the Colours.

(When the Colours have been placed) Colour Party will retire.

Please be seated, I now declare the meeting open.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

308. The following is a suggested order of business for Legion meetings.

a. Opening ceremony;
b. Introduction of guests;
c. Initiation of new members;
d. Admission of transferred and reinstated members;
e. Minutes of the last general meeting and intervening meetings;
f. Business arising from the minutes;
g. President’s report;
CLOSING CEREMONY

309. Closing Ceremony. The text that follows is the Ritual for the Closing Ceremony.

THE CHAIRMAN:

The meeting will stand at attention.

Sergeant-at-Arms, prepare to march off the Colours.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS:

Colour Party, QUICK MARCH.

_The Sergeant-at-Arms will give the necessary commands to retrieve the colours (see Figure 3-1)._

310. The colour party will advance to the Colours, pick them up to the carry and stand firm.

THE CHAIRMAN:

The business of this meeting being concluded let us, as we part, remember our duty to our Branch, our comrades, our country and our Sovereign. May we ever strive to promote unity and the spirit of comradeship, never forgetting the solemn obligations we have assumed as members of The Royal Canadian Legion and remembering them, may we ever pray.

THE MEMBERS:

Lord God of Hosts,
Be with us yet,
Lest we forget,
Lest we forget.

THE CHAIRMAN:

We will now sing _“THE ROYAL ANTHEM”_.

Sergeant-at-Arms, march off the Colours.

311. The Sergeant-at-Arms will give the necessary commands and march off the colour party (see Figure 3-1).

I now declare this meeting closed.

PARADES

313. When on parade precedence is established by the senior person marching in the right side position of the first file. Others fill from right to left in descending order of precedence.

BANQUETS

314. Precedence at banquets is established by seating the senior person to the right of the host (President or Chairman), the next senior person to the host’s left. The procedure is followed for the remaining guests.

PROTOCOL AT FUNCTIONS

315. Guests. The invitation of guests to any function can bring credit and praise upon the Legion and our members. It is also an important way to educate local persons and dignitaries to the good deeds that we as an organization accomplish within our respective communities. However, the manner in which we treat our guests will leave a lasting impression upon them, either good or bad. Therefore, it is in our best interests to invite appropriate guests to appropriate functions and to ensure that they are looked after throughout the function.

316. At any event organized through all levels of The Legion, advanced preparations and final day preparations are always essential for a successful event, the extending of proper protocol to invited guests. They should be made fully aware of your expectations from the time they arrive until the time they depart from the event. This section of the manual should assist you in ensuring that this does happen.

317. Procedures for Inviting. In determining a suitable guest for any function it is first necessary to determine how the guest relates to the function being held. Generally the guest should be knowledgeable or associated with the event taking place and will be able to add to the overall success of the event. Additionally, there may be occasions where it would be beneficial to the Legion to invite guests so that they become aware of our activities and can therefore leave the event with a positive perception of our organization and help to spread that perception throughout the community.
A potential invitee should be contacted well in advance to ensure that his schedule will permit attendance. Initial contact can be made either in person or in writing. When contact has been made, it will be necessary to provide as many details as possible concerning the event or the nature of the gathering. It should also be indicated to the guest why he has been chosen to come to the function. In essence, be up front and honest as to why you want the guest at your function. Also explain to the guest any sensitivities or peculiarities of the gathering so that he will not be embarrassed during the function.

If it is necessary to receive authority for a guest at your function, you will have to follow the procedures laid down by your Command. If the nature of the function or the guest will prove to be controversial, you should also notify your Command as to the arrangements being made. When requesting the attendance of a Dominion Officer at a branch function, the “Request for a Visit by a Dominion Command Officer” form must be completed in triplicate and submitted through the respective provincial command, at least 90 days prior to the event taking place. Copies of this Dominion Command form can be obtained through your provincial command office.

Funding of Visits for Invited Guests. If attendance of a Dominion Command officer or member of the Dominion Executive Council has been approved by Dominion Command to attend a function, Dominion Command will assume responsibility for payment of normal expenses as provided for in the travel regulations. However, such approval will be granted only for the most significant of events. Invitations extended by commands and branches to former officers or members no longer on Council should be on a direct personal basis and at the expense of the command or branch concerned.

If other guests are invited, the branch or command should bear the costs of the visit and the guests should not have to underwrite their expenses.

Making the Arrangements. Now that you have decided to invite a guest to your function, you should also determine if there are any special requirements that the guest needs, such as accommodation, transportation or any special needs. How we treat our guest while in our company will leave a lasting impression of our organization.

323. First, you should determine if there are any special transportation needs for the guest and if you can help in making those arrangements. Particular attention should be made for any guest with physical disabilities to ensure that he will have access to all venues of the event.

324. Second, you should find out if there are any special accommodation requirements for the guest and again assist in making those arrangements. If necessary you should check and confirm the accommodation reservations to ensure that they are suitable for your guest.

325. You should also determine if your invited guest has any special need’s requirements. Again, being prepared for their arrival will negate any last minute arrangements and needless running around. You may also want to assign an escort person to the guest to ensure that any requirement that arises during the visit is looked after in a timely manner. This is particularly useful if the guest is not familiar with the area.

326. Advance copies of programs for the event(s) that your guest will be attending should be mailed to your guest to ensure that the guest is fully aware of their expectations while attending the event(s). If invited guests are arriving from out of town and transportation is not being provided for your guests, they should be made aware of this. In turn, a map should be provided to the guest in advance of their accommodations location and the location of the event(s) taking place.

327. The name of the person your guest should contact upon arrival at the event(s) should be provided along with the time frame. In turn, the contact person should be made fully aware of the arrival time of your guest at the event(s). This will allow the contact person to welcome your guest and review expectations with the guest.

328. Reception of Guests. Your invited guests should be met at their point of arrival and either escorted to the event or their accommodation. On arrival, the guests should be provided with an information package and an itinerary of events. A short briefing on the events will usually suffice to provide the visitors with the needed information. Being met in a friendly and courteous manner will set the visit off on the right foot.

329. Also upon the arrival of your guest, all expectations and involvement in the event(s) should be reviewed. Similarly, if the guest is accompanied by a spouse/partner, the spouse/partner should be given similar respect and all expectations and involvement in the event(s) should be fully explained. Keep in mind that in most cases, the surroundings where the event(s) is being held is foreign to both the guest and spouse/partner.

330. Introduction of Guests. It is common practice to ask your guests to provide a short biography which can be used to introduce your guests to the assembled event. You should determine when it is best to provide an informal or formal introduction to your members.

331. In an informal gathering it would be best to introduce the guests to your group by calling their attention to the guests and then provide a short introductory welcome speech. Time should be provided to the guests to respond to the welcome and to say a few words.

332. If a guest has been invited to a more formal occasion such as a dinner, you will need to determine how best to introduce the guest to your membership. One of the best methods is a receiving line at the beginning of the dinner that will provide the guest with an opportunity to meet all members of the gathering. More information on forming a receiving line is provided in Section 337.

333. When you have entered the dining room and after grace has been said and people have sat down, it is normal for the official host to welcome the guest to the gathering. This can be done either after the gathering has sat down or immediately prior to when your guest has been asked to speak. The information gained from the guest’s biography should be used here to provide a short and accurate introduction of your guest as well as welcoming him.

334. Her Majesty the Queen or her representative (the Governor General or Lieutenant Governor) is never introduced. They are expected to be known to all. The host should therefore welcome these personages on behalf of all that are gathered. The welcome should occur before other head table guests are introduced.
335. Introduction. It is normal to invite guests to official functions to enhance the occasion and to pay tribute to those who have supported our organization. Selecting guests for particular functions has to be a careful process to ensure that they are compatible and to avoid unwanted embarrassment. You should inform the guests as to the nature of the function so that they will be comfortable within the setting and what their role will be.

336. Types of Functions. While the list of functions is vast, the more common functions where you may want an official guest are:

   a. Opening of Branches;
   b. Meetings;
   c. Parades and Ceremonies;
   d. Receptions;
   e. Dinners.

337. The Receiving Line. As mentioned in Section 332, should you decide that a receiving line is a suitable method to introduce your guest to the membership, the following guidelines should apply:

   a. The receiving line should be kept as short as possible;
   b. The official host should be the first person in the line, followed by the guest of honour, and then followed by the master of ceremonies or the person in charge of the dinner. If spouses are in attendance, they will occupy a position beside their respective partner. Should the official host determine that more persons should be recognized in the receiving line, the host may add more, but numbers should be kept to a minimum to allow for a quick procession;
   c. When your members go through a receiving line to meet the guest of honour, Legion members will precede their escorts and introduce them to the guest of honour.

338. Requirement for the Guest to Give Presentation/Speech. When inviting a guest to address your audience you should discuss the topic with your guest and provide guidance on those ideas which need to be put forward. You should also highlight any nature of any subject which may be controversial or which needs clarification. In this way your speaker can best structure his presentation to ensure that it is well received. It is also best to provide the speaker with any background information on the intended audience which will enable the speaker to gain the audience’s confidence and attention. You should also discuss with your guest whether or not his comments can be attributed to him or quoted; many guests will not provide candid comments if they are to be attributed. If the guest has no objection, there is no problem. If the guest objects to attribution, you must inform your membership of his wishes. It is not wise to abuse a privileged platform if you want your group to remain credible.

339. Requirement for a Seating Plan. In determining how to organize your event, you should decide whether or not a formal seating plan is required for either the head table or all those in attendance. A formal seating plan will allow you to mix the seating arrangement and allow people to make new acquaintances. An informal seating arrangement will allow mutual acquaintances to sit together. In either case, it is usual that a seating plan is set for the head table. In organizing a head table you should determine how large the head table should be. Consideration of the size of meeting hall and the audience need to be taken into account. As you look down from the head table onto the floor, the official host is seated in the middle of the table. The guest of honour should be seated to the right of the host and other guests, in the order of their precedence, should be seated to the left and right alternatively from there. If spouses are in attendance, it is normal that they are seated beside their partner. The master of ceremonies is usually seated to the far right of the host and at the end of the table where he can have access to a microphone if provided.

340. At a mixed function with a formal seating plan, it is customary for a gentleman to escort the lady seated to his right into the dinner from the reception area. When escorting, a gentleman offers his left arm to the lady should she need assistance to her place.

341. Requirement to Present Guest with a Memento. It is customary that you present your guest with a small memento of the occasion. This memento does not have to be extravagant but should serve your guest as a reminder of his time with you. If your guest has given a speech, it would be normal to present your memento after you have thanked him for the presentation.
342. Toasting. The offering of a toast is a time-honoured tradition to pay recognition to official guests and to fallen comrades. Toasts are normally offered at the beginning or at the end of the dinner. Toasts can be offered with spirits or wine as well as water. Glasses should not be knocked or “clinked” together when official toasts are offered. In offering a toast, the following sequence should apply.

a. “Her Majesty The Queen”, to which assembled members reply “The Queen”;

b. Other toasts;

c. “To Our Fallen Comrades”.

343. When a toast is offered, all assembled members should rise and reply to the toast. The toast to The Queen is to precede any other toast.

344. The Piper’s Toast. The use of a piper to lead a head table into position at the beginning of a dinner or to retire the head table at the end of a dinner adds additional ceremony to your event. The piper may also be asked to play a selection during your dinner. However, if a piper is used, the host should be prepared to recognize him by offering a toast in recognition of the piper’s efforts.

345. The piper is asked to step forward to the host’s position. A tray with two drinks is brought forward and offered to the piper and the host. When the drinks are taken from the tray, the piper will raise his glass and give the ancient Gaelic toast:

Slàinte mhath (pronounced Slawn-cha Vah’) meaning “Good health to you”.

The host, raising his glass, should then reply:

Slàinte (pronounced Slawn-cha) meaning “Good health”.

346. The host and piper drain their glasses and return them to the tray, at which time the piper marches smartly out of the function.

347. If the piper cannot remain at the function to receive his toast after the one to Her Majesty The Queen, then the toast to the piper should not be included in the list of activities.
348. Departure of a Guest from a Function. Unless your guest’s schedule has him departing immediately after the function, it is not polite to rush him out. Following a dinner, he should be afforded the opportunity to mix with the group and to get involved in informal social discussions. For your members, it is not normal to leave a function until your guest has departed. If there is occasion where this has to happen then your members should say good evening to the guest and excuse themselves from the function.

349. Additionally, your guest should have enough time to say goodbye to the members in attendance. You should also offer to escort your guest back to his accommodation or if necessary to his point of departure. In either case, you should provide your guest with the necessary transportation.

350. Follow up Actions after a Function. The final aspect for any activity is the actions which are required to thank your guest and to promote the event. As such, you should send a letter of appreciation to your guest and if necessary you should publicize the event in the local media.

351. Letters of Appreciation. A letter of appreciation should be sent to your guest of honour to acknowledge the efforts that they went through to attend and address your function. If necessary and your guest represented an organization, you should also send a letter of appreciation to the governing body of that organization to recognize your guest’s contribution. In that way, that organization will feel that they have been recognized and would look favourably on any future requests for guest speakers.

352. News Releases. It is appropriate for any organization to receive public recognition of an event through the local media. This serves to keep the community aware of your organization and how you support local activities. As such, a small article with a photograph would serve your purposes well. If the event was a large gathering, the local media may have covered it already. There is however a word of caution, if your guest speaker was attributed a privileged platform status, this must be emphasized in your news release.
CHAPTER 4

Welcoming Ceremony

GENERAL

401. The formal welcoming ceremony is an optional process to membership in The Royal Canadian Legion. If a Branch chooses to retain the welcoming ritual for its membership, the ceremony should be conducted as follows:

402. The Branch President, or an officer delegated by the President, will preside over this ceremony; those members of the Branch Executive Committee taking part in the ceremony are required to be in Legion dress. There is no requirement for the person(s) being welcomed to wear Legion dress.

WELCOMING

403. Upon review of the membership application and payment of membership dues, the Branch should make the new member aware of the time and date of the welcoming ceremony. This can be done at a regular general meeting or an executive meeting, or if not convenient, at any other time and performed by the Branch President or an officer designated by the President with a witness present.

THE WELCOMING CEREMONY

404. PRESIDING OFFICER:

Sergeant-at-Arms, please assemble the member(s) for this ceremony.

(When the member(s) are in position)

Comrade Membership Chairman, please present the member(s) serving in Her Majesty’s armed forces or any auxiliary force and others who support the purposes and objects of the Legion.

The Legion shall stand for Loyalty to the reigning Sovereign and to Canada for strong and united comradeship among all members and those that have served or are serving, so that their rights nor their interests are forgotten, and that their welfare and that of their dependants, especially the dependents of the disabled, the sick, the aged and the needy may always be safeguarded.

Having heard the purposes and objects of this great organization, are you prepared to subscribe to them and labour to advance the Legion’s cause, including active participation in Poppy campaigns?

NEW MEMBER(S):

PRESIDING OFFICER:

I now declare you duly admitted to membership in The Royal Canadian Legion, subject to all obligations contained within the organization’s By-Laws.

Comrade(s), it gives me great pleasure in extending to you the right hand of comradeship and present you with your Legion badge. It is important that new Legion members become aware of the meaning and significance of our Legion Emblems. The explanation of our Legion Emblems may be found in Section 405 of our Ritual, Awards and Protocol manual.

Comrade Sergeant-at-Arms, please conduct the member(s) to their seat(s).

This completes the welcoming ceremony.

405. EXPLANATION OF LEGION EMBLEMS.

The following is an explanation of the emblems of The Royal Canadian Legion. It is important that new Legion members be aware of their meaning and significance.

THE NATIONAL FLAG OF CANADA – represents our country throughout the world. The red and white are the colours of Canada. The Maple Leaf has been regarded as a Canadian Emblem since 1700. Since its inauguration in 1965, it has flown over Canada during the Gulf War, the Afghanistan War on Terrorism and many United Nations and NATO Missions.

THE CANADIAN RED ENSIGN – holds a special place in the hearts and minds of veterans and all Canadians. The 1922 to 1957 version flew over Canada during World War II, the Korean War, the reigns of George V and George VI, and the Coronation of Elizabeth II.

THE ROYAL UNION FLAG – more commonly called the Union Jack, is a symbol of Canada’s membership in the Commonwealth of Nations and of her allegiance to the Crown and our affiliation with the Royal Commonwealth Ex-Services League (RCEL).

THE BLOOD RED POPPY OF FLANDERS – is immortalized as an emblem of sacrifice and Remembrance for the honouring of the thousands who laid down their lives for those ideals which we, as Canadians, cherish. The Poppy calls upon us to remember not only those who have died, but also those they left dependent and those who still suffer from honourable wounds and disabilities. The Poppy challenges us to serve in peace, as in war, to help those who need our help and to protect those who need our protection.

THE TORCH – is symbolic of justice, honour and freedom for which our comrades fought and died. We who are left must pledge ourselves to hold it high lest we break faith with those who died.

OUR BADGE – is a symbolic badge.

THE CROWN – is the St. Edward Crown used by the Sovereign.

THE RED MAPLE LEAF – on a white background is derived from the Canadian coat of arms.

OUR PLEDGE AND MOTTO – Memoriam Eorum Retinebimus (We Will Remember Them) - is in the outside circle. It is in Latin, a language generally used on badges, crests and banners of national and military emblems.

THE WORD LEGION – in gold, and the background in blue represents the official colours of the Legion.

THE POPPY – is the symbol of Remembrance.

THIS BADGE – was approved by the Sovereign. It is to be worn honourably and proudly.

605. Veterans organizations and members of the Diplomatic Corps follow the Vice-Regal Party. There may be special occasions where circumstances dictate that a personage be added to the Vice-Regal Party.

606. During the wreath laying, the band and/or choir performs suitable music. (e.g. “Abide with Me”, “O Valiant Hearts”, etc.). The John McCrae poem, “In Flanders Fields” should be read or sung as a prelude or during the wreath laying. The text can be found on the inside front cover.

607. Other organizations and individuals lay wreaths after the official wreath laying.

608. Following the playing of “The Royal Anthem”, the parade marches past the saluting base where the salute is taken by the Governor General.

609. Local Remembrance Day Ceremonies. Local ceremonies should, where possible, conform to the general format of the National Remembrance Day Ceremony.

The religious portion of the Remembrance Day Ceremony should be short and non-sectarian.

DEDICATION OF A MEMORIAL

The dedication of a memorial, be it newly constructed or refurbished, is a significant event in the life of the Legion and the members. The dedication may be as grandiose as the unveiling of a new cenotaph to as simple as the placing of a memorial plaque.

Any activity of this nature is of extreme importance to the persons affected by the event that is being remembered and care must be taken to ensure that the activities are carried out in a solemn, dignified and respectful manner.
619. Order of Ceremony. The recommended manner in which the ceremony should proceed is as follows:

a. “O Canada”;
b. A hymn;
c. A scripture reading;
d. An address if considered appropriate;
e. The unveiling of the memorial;
f. A prayer of dedication;
g. The “Last Post”;
h. 2 Minutes of Silence;
i. “The Lament”. The playing of the Lament is optional. If played it is not to commence until the 2 Minutes of Silence has elapsed;
j. “Rouse”;
k. The Act of Remembrance;
l. The placing of wreaths;
m. “The Royal Anthem”.

ORDER OF DIVINE SERVICE

620. The manner in which a divine service is to be organized should be done in full consultation with representatives of the clergy. Obviously, the reason for the service will determine the degree of preparation required, the facility to be used, the number of persons who will be directly involved with the service and the number of people expected to attend. These are not easy questions to answer and can only be resolved through a careful and thorough examination.

The service should be of an ecumenical nature.

621. Order of Service. The manner in which the service should proceed is as follows:

a. A hymn;
b. The Invocation;
c. The reading of a psalm;
d. A scripture reading;
e. The Lord’s Prayer and other prayers should be included;
f. An address focussing on the reason for the service;
g. A hymn;
h. “O Canada”;
i. The Blessing.

622. Other Factors. Should the service be Remembrance-related, the Last Post, Silence, Rouse and The Act of Remembrance can be inserted at an appropriate place - for example prior to the address or immediately following.

CEREMONY - OPENING A LEGION HALL

623. When a Legion Hall is opened, be it a new building or one that has been renovated, it is a very significant event in the life of the community. In order to ensure that the event receives the recognition and publicity deserved, care must be taken to ensure that the opening is carried out in a dignified manner. Care must also be taken to invite persons within the Community who the Legion has worked with to achieve this special moment, those who the Legion will work with when doing community service and those who the Legion will serve.

624. Protocol. In order to ensure that guests, both senior Legion members and federal, provincial and municipal officials, are accorded the respect that their position dictates, consult Sections 315 to 352.

625. Further information can be obtained by contacting Heritage Canada. The web site is - www.pch.gc.ca. Once the site has been located go to the A-Z index, look up “protocol” and click on the word.

626. Each provincial and territorial government has a Protocol Office and the addresses are available in the protocol area of the Heritage Canada web site.

627. The Opening. The suggested order of the ceremony is as follows:

a. Conduct the Opening Ceremony as described in Chapter 3;

b. Welcoming remarks from the Branch President;

c. Guests should be introduced in the following order:
   i. The Guest of Honour - if the Guest of Honour is one of the persons named below the individual will be introduced here;
   ii. The Dominion President;
   iii. The Provincial President;
   iv. The Member of Parliament for the federal riding in which the Branch is located;
   v. The Member of the Provincial Legislature for the provincial riding in which the Branch is located;
   vi. The mayor and/or reeve;
   vii. The District Commander;

The Chaplain should be called upon to conduct the Dedication;

The Branch President thanks the Guest Speaker, the Chaplain, the various Building Committee members, the Ladies Auxiliary for their support, and the persons from private industry responsible for designing and doing the construction or renovations (if applicable);

Announcements such as refreshments, tours, etc.;

Conduct the Closing Ceremony as described in Chapter 3;

Move into the social phase of the occasion.

628. Other Significant Events. The format for the ceremony outlined above can be adapted for other events where community leaders and members of the public will be present at a Legion sponsored activity.

HONOURS AND AWARDS PRESENTATIONS

629. The presentation of an Honour or Award to a Comrade is a significant moment in that person's life. It matters not what the Honour or Award is for, but it matters much how the presentation is handled. The presentation must be done in a dignified and professional manner. After all, the comrade who is receiving the award has earned this recognition and it is the responsibility of the Executive to follow through in an appropriate manner.

630. Honours and Awards presentation ceremonies may be arranged for most any occasion such as regular Branch meetings, functions - for example formal dinners, or gatherings arranged specifically for this purpose.

631. Care must be taken when selecting the person who will bestow the award on the comrade(s) who are to be honoured. The presenter must have the respect of those who will be present at the ceremony and be knowledgeable of the nature of the achievements that will be recognized. Care must be taken to ensure that the presenter is fully briefed on what is expected of him/her and what can be expected to be encountered at the presentation ceremony.

632. It is obvious that senior or other prominent members of The Royal Canadian Legion will be called upon to make presentations; however, prominent members of the community may also be asked to participate. Such an occasion offers members of the Legion to showcase the Branch and demonstrate the level of activity within the community. It also serves to sensitize key members of the community as to how vital the Legion is to community life.

633. When presentations are made the citation should be read in full. It would be a disservice to the recipient(s) to do otherwise.

GENERAL PURPOSE GRACE AND INVOCATION

634. Following are generic versions of a Grace Before a Meal and an Invocation. They are provided for general use for events not otherwise covered in this manual.

a. Grace Before a Meal – O Lord our God, be present at our table and sanctify with your word and spirit this food to our nourishment and enjoyment. Amen;

b. Invocation – Our Heavenly Father, we are gathered here today as members of the Royal Canadian Legion and ask for your blessing on this special day. We ask that you continue to bless all the work that we do within the Legion, and our Veterans. We also ask that you bless our troops in harm’s way in far away fields, and their families who await their safe return. We ask this in your name. Amen.

   i. The Funeral Service;
   ii. A Grave Side Service;
   iii. A Memorial Service.

h. The Funeral Service for all other Legion members and members of the Ladies Auxiliary;
   i. The Funeral Service;
   ii. A Grave Side Service;
   iii. A Memorial Service.

i. Summary.

703. The remainder of this chapter is devoted to outlining the above processes and procedures.

VETERAN - DEFINED

704. At the 2014 Dominion Command Convention held in Edmonton, Alberta, the Legion updated the definition of a Veteran. This definition can be found in the General By-Laws of the Royal Canadian Legion under Sub Section 101.d.
TYPES OF LEGION FUNERAL SERVICES

705. Within the Royal Canadian Legion there are two forms of a funeral service for departed comrades. The services are:

a. A funeral service for a Veteran and other Ordinary members;
b. A funeral service for all other members, to include non-veterans, Associates, Affiliate voting and non-voting members and members of the Ladies Auxiliary.

SYMBOLS

706. The symbols used at the Legion Tribute are:

a. The Lapel Poppy used at a funeral service for a Veteran or other Ordinary member;
b. The Red Maple Leaf used at the funeral of all other members- Associate, Affiliate voting and non-voting members and members of the Ladies Auxiliary.

NOTIFICATION OF A DEATH

707. Upon the notification of the death of a Legion member or member of the Ladies Auxiliary, the following action should be taken.

a. Exterior flags are to be lowered to the half mast position and remain in this position until the comrade has been buried or the period of mourning has passed;

   Note: This normally should not exceed 7 days.

b. The family may be contacted to determine what assistance the Branch can provide. Some examples of assistance are - does the family wish a Legion Tribute as this is a decision for the family; does the family wish Legion pall bearers; does the Branch provide a reception after the funeral and if so does the family wish to take advantage of the offer; etc.;
c. A wreath should be sent to the funeral home;
d. If a Legion tribute is to take place action must be taken to notify the following persons;

   i. The Branch President;
   ii. The Chaplain;
   iii. The Sergeant-at-Arms or designate;
   iv. The members;
v. Consideration also has to be given to notifying other Branches of the death and all details of Legion involvement.

e. For the purposes of this chapter the persons listed above at i. and ii., are referred to as the Comrade in Charge as each may be required to conduct a Legion funeral service;

f. It is further recommended that the Branch Charter and/or the Ladies Auxiliary Branch Charter be draped until the Comrade has been buried or the period of mourning has passed.

g. All of the other details that must be pulled together to ensure that the comrade is properly honoured.

ACTIVITIES - THE LEGION TRIBUTE

708. The Legion Tribute is the ritual that is used to pay homage, grieve, remember and say goodbye to a departed comrade. When the Tribute is conducted, the degree to which it will be performed will depend on local circumstances. At a minimum, the following should occur:

a. Veterans or other Ordinary Members - the placing of at least one Poppy, The Silence and The Act of Remembrance should be included in the service;

b. Other Members and the Ladies Auxiliary - the placing of at least one Maple Leaf.

709. The requirements that must be taken into consideration are as follows:

a. Dress. It is not normal practice for berets to be worn indoors with the exception of the Sergeant-at-Arms, Colour Bearer(s), and/or Honour Guards, members of the Ladies Auxiliary and by members whose religious doctrine or customs require that the head be covered. Berets may be worn immediately following the service to permit a salute when passing by the remains of the deceased or the memorial display;

b. Procedure - Legion Tribute. The place where the Tribute will take place may be a funeral home, a Legion Branch, a church, a private residence or other place. Regardless of the location, care must be taken to ensure that all involved with the funeral are aware of their responsibilities and that persons not associated with the Legion are aware of what will occur. The points that follow are of particular importance as they are key to a dignified and meaningful tribute;

i. If “Last Post”, “Rouse” and/or other music is to be played there is a requirement to advise the Funeral Director and take into account any advice that may be provided. If the Director will play the music he must be made aware of the appropriate time. If a comrade is to play the music, either live or on tape, the Director must be aware;

ii. Poppies or Maple Leaves are to be distributed to the comrades as they arrive. It is Legion practice for the Poppy or Maple Leaf to be worn on the Legion blazer prior to being removed to be placed on the casket;

iii. Prior to the Tribute, all comrades participating should be gathered together and briefed on the procedure that will be used. The briefing should include the route to be taken, the number of persons per group who will go forward to place their tribute, the direction in which they will leave the casket, and the route to leave the room;

iv. At the appointed time, comrades move into the area where the tribute will occur under the direction of the Sergeant-at Arms. Comrades will march in pairs, led by the Branch President and the Comrade in Charge. The group will follow in order of seniority, Dominion Command representatives leading, followed by Provincial Command representatives, followed by District, Zone, Branch Executive representatives and Branch members;

v. When all comrades are in position, the Sergeant-at-Arms moves to a position near the head of the casket;

vi. The cue for the Comrade In Charge to commence the Legion Tribute is the Sergeant-at-Arms taking his position near the head of the casket.

c. Placing - Poppies and Maple Leaves. The information required to conduct this part of the Tribute is as follows:

i. The Comrade in Charge will place the first Poppy or Maple Leaf and then return to his position;
ii. Comrades will then commence to place their Poppies or Maple Leaves. Two comrades will move forward at a time, place the Poppy or Maple Leaf, step back one pace, bow, turn left or right and march to the rear of the group. At this point a new group will start to form;

iii. Each pair of comrades will follow the same procedure moving forward as the comrades to their front move away from the casket;

iv. As each line completes the tribute the assembly will move forward one pace;

v. Once all others have placed their Poppy or Maple Leaf the Sergeant-at-Arms will salute and place his Poppy or Maple Leaf and return to his position;

vi. The cue for the Comrade in Charge to complete the ceremony is the Sergeant-at-Arms taking his position near the head of the casket;

vii. Upon completion of the prayer or benediction the Comrade In Charge, followed by the Branch President and all remaining comrades will pay their respects to the family and move out of the area;

viii. The Tribute has been completed.

CEREMONIAL ACTIVITIES

710. There are selected ceremonial activities that may or may not occur depending on local circumstances. Should these activities occur, the procedures to be followed are as listed below.

a. Covering the Casket. It is the responsibility of the designated Legion member, through the Funeral Director if desired, to determine if the family wishes to drape the casket with the Canadian Flag without a fringe and the departed comrade’s beret, medals and a wreath. Figure 7-1 shows the manner in which the items listed above are to be placed. The point of the Maple Leaf in the Canadian Flag is to be adjacent to the deceased’s heart;
b. The Canadian Flag. At the request of the clergy, a ceremony to remove and replace the Canadian Flag before and after the church service may be conducted;

c. Directions for Folding the Canadian Flag. In response to many requests, the Ritual and Awards and Protocol Committee has devised a method of folding the Canadian Flag. In the absence of an official method from the Government of Canada, this method of folding will be the Legion’s official folding procedure. This folding method was formulated with a 4.5 ft. by 9 ft. or 3 ft. by 6 ft. Canadian Flag, without fringe, but will work with other size flags as well;

i. Step 1. Arrange the flag in a flat, horizontal position, either held taut by six people (one on each of the four corners and one on either of the long sides in the center) or lying flat on a table. Out of respect, please avoid having any contact between the flag and the ground or floor;
ii. Step 2. Fold the ends of the flag inward until they meet in the exact center. The result will be a square with the red portions of the flag over the maple leaf;

![Diagram showing Step 2]

iii. Step 3. In a similar fashion to the previous step, fold the newly created ends inward by dividing the square into thirds, folding in the right side over the center panel, and then folding the left side over both. The end result will be a rectangle, the length of the flag’s short side (the width or the hoist) and one sixth of the flag’s long dimension (the fly);

![Diagram showing Step 3]

iv. Step 4. Fold the top third of the folded flag over the center portion, and open a “pocket” in the end. Fold the bottom third up and compress the end slightly, fitting it into the “pocket” of the upper third, pushing it entirely inside;

![Diagram showing Step 4]
v. Step 5. Arrange so that the top portion of the maple leaf is showing and tidy up the folded flag into a neat rectangle, ready for presentation.

![Maple Leaf Diagram]

d. Presentation of the Canadian Flag. The Canadian Flag. The deceased member’s Branch may wish to present the Canadian flag to the next-of-kin. The flag folding ceremony is to occur immediately prior to the casket being interred;

e. Presentation of the Beret and Medals. If the Legion Tribute occurs during the evening prior to the funeral service, the Funeral Director is to remove, care for and return the beret and medals to the next-of-kin following burial. Should the Legion Tribute occur at the funeral or at the grave site, the Funeral Director will remove and pass the beret and medals to a designated Legion member. The Comrade will be responsible to present these items to the next-of-kin at an appropriate time;

f. Pallbearers. Pallbearers, when carrying the casket, may remove their headdress. If the headdress is removed it is to be replaced at the grave side immediately before The “Last Post” is sounded;

g. Leaving the Service. If it is intended that the Legion members precede the casket and bearers out of the location of the service they will line up on both sides of the exit and form a Guard of Honour and will remain until the cortege has left. If the Guard of Honour is to proceed to the cemetery, it will hold its position until the casket is placed in the hearse and then move to the transportation being provided.
FUNERALS FOR VETERANS AND ORDINARY MEMBERS

THE FUNERAL SERVICE

711. The form that the funeral service will take may have been predetermined by the departed comrade and/or the family. In addition, the member of the clergy who will conduct the service has the responsibility to see that the deceased’s and family’s wishes are respected.

712. The Legion is present to support the family and to honour the departed comrade. To this end, it is imperative that the clergy understand the symbolism of the Legion Tribute and the Legion members participating must be aware of the requirements of the clergy. The only way that both parties can be informed of each other’s needs is through communication. To ensure effective communication the Legion should take the initiative and contact the clergy to discuss the arrangements for the funeral.

713. The Legion Order of Service. The Legion Order of Service or Legion Tribute as it is often called is a funeral service that has been developed to permit members to say goodbye to their fallen comrade. The Poppy is an integral part of the service, and its use must be planned so as not to detract from the dignity of the occasion. Consideration must be given to the wishes of the family, the officiating clergy, local customs and location. The service is conducted in the following manner.

a. The Clergy or Comrade In Charge should announce the hymn and request the gathering to stand;

b. A suitable selection is “Abide with Me” (first and last verse);

c. The Clergy or Comrade In Charge:

   In the presence of the last earthly remains of our Comrade [name], whose loss we mourn but whose spirit still lives, may we, as citizens and members of The Royal Canadian Legion, be charged anew with the full sense of our duties and responsibilities to our country and our organization. May we ever strive to uphold the principles of unselfish service which led us to serve our God and our country in time of war and in peace, so that we may continue to serve, even unto death.
d. The Clergy or Comrade in Charge places a single poppy on the casket;

e. A prayer which is optional. The following is suggested.

“O God, we remember before you those who laid down their lives for freedom and truth. We commend their souls into your gracious keeping and pray that we may be worthy of their sacrifice. Help us to be faithful and true to those ideals for which they fought and died. May we continue to perpetuate the memory of our departed comrades by our service to country, community and comrades, and remembering our solemn obligation, may we ever pray - Lord God of Hosts; Be with us yet.”;

Response:

Lest we forget; Lest we forget.

f. “Last Post” (optional);

g. The Silence;

h. “Rouse” (optional);

i. The Act of Remembrance;

j. The Clergy or Comrade In Charge:

Our Heavenly Father, grant, we beseech you, to the loved ones of our departed comrade, your comfort and protection.

Amen;

k. Poppies may be placed on the casket by a special honour guard and/or all comrades present;

l. The manner in which the Tribute is to be conducted is shown at Section 708.

A LEGION GRAVE SIDE SERVICE

714. There may be circumstances which preclude a Tribute being conducted at a Funeral Service, but the need for a grave side service has been identified. Regardless of the circumstances a Tribute may occur and the degree to which it will be performed is to be determined locally.

The following order of service is suggested.

a. Arrangements are to be made in advance with the person who will officiate at the service, the Clergy or Funeral Director, to position the Legion members for the service and determine when the Tribute will occur;

b. Prior to commencing the service, Poppies are to be distributed to those who will participate in the Tribute;
c. The Comrade In Charge is responsible for carrying out the Legion Tribute;

d. Poppies will be dropped into the grave at the conclusion of the Tribute;

e. Legionnaires in uniform and wearing their headdress will salute after dropping their Poppy;

f. Other persons will pause a moment, turn and file past the grave.

A LEGION MEMORIAL SERVICE

715. A Memorial Service is held when there are no earthly remains and the procedure is as follows:

a. The Clergy or Comrade In Charge should announce the hymn and request the gathering to stand;

b. The hymn is one that is chosen by the family or the clergy;

c. The Clergy, or Comrade In Charge:

   We assemble today to solemnly remember and to pay our respects to the life of our comrade [name], whose death we mourn, but whose spirit still lives. May we, as citizens and members of The Royal Canadian Legion, be charged anew with the full sense of our duties and responsibilities to our country and our organization. May we ever strive to uphold the principles of unselfish service which led us to serve our God and our country in time of war and in peace, so that we may continue to serve, even unto death;

d. A Prayer (optional);

e. The Eulogy;

f. “Last Post” (optional);

g. The Silence;

h. “Rouse” (optional);

i. The Act of Remembrance;

j. The Clergy or Comrade In Charge:

   Our Heavenly Father, grant, we beseech you, to the loved ones of our departed comrade, your comfort and protection. Amen;

k. A Memorial Cross, constructed from a porous material, may be placed in position where members may place a Poppy;

l. The tribute may be carried out at the conclusion of the service.
FUNERALS FOR ASSOCIATE AND AFFILIATE LEGION MEMBERS AND MEMBERS OF THE LADIES AUXILIARY

THE FUNERAL SERVICE

716. The form that the funeral service will take may have been predetermined by the departed comrade and/or the family. In addition, the member of the clergy who will conduct the service has the responsibility to see that the deceased’s and family’s wishes are respected.

717. The Legion is present to support the family and to honour the departed comrade. To this end, it is imperative that the clergy understand the symbolism of the Legion Tribute and the Legion members participating must be aware of the requirements of the clergy. The only way that both parties can be informed of each others needs is through communication. To ensure effective communication the Legion should take the initiative and contact the clergy to discuss the arrangements for the funeral.

718. Order of Service. The Order of Service for an Associate or Affiliate member and non-veteran member of the Ladies Auxiliary is as follows:

- Maple Leaves are to be distributed to those who will participate in the Legion Tribute prior to the commencement of the service;

  In the presence of the last earthly remains of our Comrade [name], whose loss we mourn but whose spirit still lives, may we, as citizens and members of The Royal Canadian Legion, be charged anew with the full sense of our duties and responsibilities to our country and our organization. May we ever strive to uphold the principles of unselfish service which led us to serve our God and our country, so that we may continue to serve, even unto death;
- The Clergy or Comrade In Charge places a single Maple Leaf on the casket;
- A Prayer (optional);
g. The Silence;
h. Act of Remembrance;
i. The members go forward and place the Maple Leaves;
j. The Clergy or Comrade In Charge:

719. The procedure is as described at Subsection 709.b. (omitting all reference to “Last Post” and “Rouse”).

A GRAVESIDE SERVICE

720. The following is the suggested order of service if held at the grave side:

a. Arrangements are to be made in advance with the person who will officiate at the service, the Clergy or Funeral Director, to position the Legion members for the service and determine when the Legion Tribute will occur;
b. Should a Legion Tribute occur, Maple Leaves are to be distributed to those who will participate prior to the commencement of the service;

e. Legionnaires in uniform and wearing their headdress will salute after dropping their Maple Leaf;
f. All other persons will pause a moment, turn and file past the grave site.

A MEMORIAL SERVICE

721. A Memorial Service is held when there are no earthly remains and the procedure is as follows:

a. The Clergy or Comrade In Charge, should announce the hymn and request the gathering to stand;
b. The hymn is one that is chosen by the family or the clergy;
c. The Clergy or Comrade In Charge:

We assemble today to solemnly remember and to pay our respects to the life of our comrade [name], whose death we mourn, but whose spirit still lives. May we, as citizens and members of The Royal Canadian Legion, be charged anew with the full sense of our duties and responsibilities to our country and our organization. May we ever strive to uphold the principles of unselfish service which led us to serve our God and our country, so that we may continue to serve, even unto death;

h. A Memorial Cross, constructed from a porous material, may be placed in position where members may place the Maple Leaf;
i. The tribute maybe carried out at the conclusion for the service.

SUMMARY

722. The procedures and protocol outlined in this chapter have been developed to provide all members with the knowledge and guidance necessary to ensure that funeral services held for our comrades are conducted in the most dignified manner possible. It is realized that there will be requirements to deviate from these procedures on occasion due to local situations that will develop. All that can be asked in such circumstances is for the comrades who are responsible for funeral services to conduct the services in a manner that demonstrates that the Legion cares.
801. There are more than 6,000 local cenotaphs/monuments/memorial walls that are dedicated to Canada’s war dead and Veterans across Canada. The vast majority of these memorials have been erected in dedicated municipal parks as a result of efforts by local Legion Branches, community groups, Provinces, private sponsors, Regimental associations and other Veterans’ organizations.

802. The Government of Canada is committed to preserving the memory of our nation’s war dead and Veterans through proper care and conservation of Canada’s cenotaphs/monuments/memorial walls. To assist in ensuring this is accomplished, Veterans Affairs Canada in partnership with community groups and local organizations including the Royal Canadian Legion wants to ensure that these memorials are conserved to the highest standard of care and dignity.

803. To this end, VAC has a Cenotaph/Monument Restoration Program in place to monetarily assist Legion branches and other community groups in being able to accomplish this. Through this program, communities and Legion branches across Canada will be able to restore Cenotaphs and Monuments that promote and preserve the memory of all those who have served Canada since 1867. Guidelines have been established to review requests and evaluate Cenotaph/Monument restoration projects in a fair and equitable manner. The program guidelines can be viewed on the Veterans Affairs website at www.veterans.gc.ca.

804. From time to time, Legion Branches are instrumental in community Cenotaph/Monument restoration projects. When considering such projects, full consideration should be given to the fact that cenotaphs, monuments and memorial walls serve a specific purpose within communities. The specific purpose is that such memorials are dedicated to Canada’s war dead and Veterans, and full respect and dignity should be given to them.
805. The area in which they are located within communities are considered sacred grounds and should receive the respect and dignity they so rightly deserve. With the purpose of the Cenotaphs, Monuments or Memorial Walls being to preserve the memory of our war dead and Veterans, any names inscribed within the given area of such memorials should only be those of our Veterans and war dead, not the general public. Should the local Legion Branch and/or community wish to include names of various donors etc., for such cenotaph projects, these names should then be included in an area separate from the area where the cenotaph/monument dedicated to the war dead is located.
FLAGS AND BANNERS

901. Use, Precedence and Formations. The flags approved for use by The Royal Canadian Legion and their Order of Precedence is listed below.

a. The Canadian Flag;
b. The Red Ensign (1922 - 1957);
c. The Royal Union Flag colloquially referred to as the Union Jack;
d. Provincial and/or a Territorial flag;
e. The United Nations Flag;
f. NATO Flag;
g. The Legion Banner.

902. The flags shall be displayed or carried on the following occasions.

a. At Legion parades and meetings;
b. On significant national, provincial/territorial and civic occasions.

903. The Canadian Flag may be displayed on an appropriate pole outside of a Legion building. Flag protocol state that it would always be flown on its own mast or flag pole and that it is improper to fly two or more flags on the same pole (e.g. one beneath the other), with the exception of section 905.

904. Legion Colours may be displayed outside of a Legion building providing flag poles are available. For example, a Legion building with two flag poles would fly the Canadian and applicable Provincial or Territorial Flag.

905. The Poppy banner may be flown at all Legion Branches during the annual November Remembrance period. It is to be flown on the flagpole below the Canadian flag.

906. A provincial or territorial flag may be carried with the Dominion Colours as the circumstances warrant for a local event (see section 938).
907. At national events, the 13 Provincial and Territorial flags should be carried and/or displayed separately from the Dominion Command Colours.

908. Precedence - Provincial and Territorial Flags. When more than one provincial or territorial flag is flown, the order of precedence is:
   a. Ontario;
   b. Quebec;
   c. Nova Scotia;
   d. New Brunswick;
   e. Manitoba;
   f. British Columbia;
   g. Prince Edward Island;
   h. Saskatchewan;
   i. Alberta;
   j. Newfoundland & Labrador;
   k. Northwest Territories;
   l. Yukon;
   m. Nunavut.

909. When all provincial and territorial flags are paraded or placed in single file with other approved flags, they shall appear as in Figure 9-1 A.

910. When all provincial and territorial flags are paraded in two files with other approved flags, they shall appear as in Figure 9-1 B.

911. When all provincial and territorial flags are paraded in a marching formation with other approved flags, they shall appear as in Figure 9-1 C.

912. United States of America. Legion Branches and posts in the United States of America fly the American National Flag as it takes precedence and Canadian Provincial and Territorial flags are not used.

NOTE: The legend in Figure TC-1 in the Table of Contents is to be used when referring to the figures shown in the manual.
Questions of flag etiquette not addressed in this manual should be referred to Heritage Canada. The Internet address is - www.canada.ca.

For the purpose of these instructions the term “flag” will also serve to signify jacks, banners, pennants, ensigns, standards, etc. Also, the term “pike” is intended to signify a relatively short pole which could be carried by an individual for ceremonial occasions and is not permanently mounted. Conversely, the term “flagpole” (or “mast”) is intended to signify a pole of such dimensions or permanent mounting that precludes it being carried on ceremonial occasions. Flagpoles may be fitted with halyard and pulley systems to enable the raising and lowering of flags flown on them.

It is appropriate for the Canadian Flag to be displayed by individuals and organizations. The manner in which flags may be displayed in Canada is not governed by any legislation but by established practice adapted from international usage and customs of the federal government. At all times the Canadian Flag, as well as other flags, should be treated with dignity and displayed properly, out of respect for what and who they represent. Flags should never be allowed to touch the ground, floor or deck.

916. Flags may be displayed flat or flown at the top of a pike or flagpole and are usually displayed so that the canton (First Quarter) is seen at the upper left when the flag is viewed by spectators from the front.

917. The Canadian Flag may be displayed horizontally or vertically on a wall. When displayed horizontally, the sleeve shall be to the left. When displayed vertically, the top of the leaf is to the left and the stem is to the right.
918. When flags are flown, pikes should be 7 to 8 ft (2.1 to 2.4 m) in length and flagpole lengths should be as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>FLAG SIZE</th>
<th>FLAGPOLE LENGTH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3.0 x 6.0 ft (0.9 x 1.8 m)</td>
<td>17 to 20 ft (5.1 to 6.0 m)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.5 x 9.0 ft (1.4 x 2.8 m)</td>
<td>30 to 35 ft (9.0 to 10.5 m)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.0 x 12.0 ft (1.8 x 3.6 m)</td>
<td>40 to 45 ft (12.0 to 13.5 m)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.5 x 15.0 ft (2.3 x 4.6 m)</td>
<td>50 ft (15.0 m)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

919. The Canadian Flag may be displayed flat or flown in a church, auditorium, or any other meeting place. When used on a speaker’s platform, the Flag should be flown to the right of the speaker. If displayed flat against the wall at the back of the platform, the Flag should be above and behind the speaker. The Flag shall not be used to cover a table or seat or be draped in front of a platform, dais, barrier, etc. When draping, festoons, etc., are required, bunting should be used; not the Flag itself. When used in the body of a meeting place, the Flag should be flown to the left of the audience, as seen by the audience.

920. The Canadian Flag shall be given the place of honour when flown with other flags except for the personal standards of members of the Royal Family or of Her Majesty’s representatives in Canada. The manner in which the Canadian Flag is flown is as follows:

a. Flags flown together should be approximately the same size and flown from separate mast or flagpole at the same height. International usage forbids the displaying of the flag of one nation above that of another on the same flagpole;

b. No flag shall be flown or displayed above the Canadian Flag. The exception is where a flagpole has a gaff or yardarm;

c. When two or more than three flags are flown together, the Canadian Flag shall be on the left, as seen by spectators in front of the flags, with the other flags flown in order of precedence from left to right or alphabetical order for other national flags. The Canadian Flag may be flown at each end of the line;

d. When three flags are flown or displayed together, the Canadian Flag shall occupy the central position... with the next ranking flag to the left and the third ranking flag to the right, as seen by spectators in front of the flags;

e. Where more than one flag is flown on a group of flagpoles and it is impossible to raise or lower them simultaneously, the Canadian Flag(s) shall be raised first and lowered last;

f. When the Canadian Flag is flown alone on one of a group of flagpoles, it shall be flown on the left of two flagpoles or on the flagpole nearest to the centre when there are more than two flagpoles as viewed from the front by spectators;

g. When the Canadian Flag is flown crossed with another national flag, it should be on the left with its pike crossed in front of the other, as viewed from the front by spectators.

921. When it is practical, the Canadian Flag is flown daily from sunrise to sunset, however, it is not contrary to etiquette to have the Flag flying at night.

922. The use of the Canadian Flag to cover a statue, monument or plaque for an unveiling ceremony is against Flag Protocol and this practice should be strongly discouraged.

923. The Canadian Flag, the Red Ensign, the Royal Union Flag, a Provincial or Territorial Flag, the UN Flag, the NATO Flag, or the Legion Banner shall not be used as a marker on a Legion parade.

924. Care must be taken when displaying the Royal Union Flag from a pike or flagpole so that the wide white stripe is next to the pike/flagpole and is uppermost.

925. When the Canadian Flag is raised or lowered or when it is carried past in a parade, all present should face the Flag and remain silent. Comrades in uniform shall salute and men in civilian dress shall remove their hats.

926. When a flag becomes noticeably worn, faded or otherwise unfit for service, to prevent its desecration, it should be disposed of privately by burning.

HALF-MASTING

927. A flag flown at half-mast is the universal symbol of mourning, and only flags secured to flagpoles with halyards and pulleys will be half-masted. To place a flag at half-mast, it shall be raised to the masthead, and then slowly lowered until the flag’s centre is midway between the masthead and the base of the flagpole. When lowering a flag from the half-mast, it will first be raised to the masthead, and then lowered in the usual manner.

928. On occasions requiring one flag to be flown at half-mast, all other flags flown with it should also be at half-mast.

929. The Canadian Flag should be flown at half-mast on the following occasions at Legion establishments on flagpole that are fitted with halyards and pulleys.

a. Throughout Canada on the death of the Sovereign or a member of the Royal Family related in the first degree to the Sovereign, the Governor General, the Prime Minister, a former Governor General, a former Prime Minister, a federal Cabinet Minister, the Dominion President, a past Dominion president, a Dominion officer and on other occasions as specifically directed by Dominion Command including days declared as days of national mourning;

b. Within a province/territory on the death of the Lieutenant-Governor, the Premier, a Cabinet Minister, the Provincial President, a Past Provincial President, a Provincial Officer and on other occasions as specifically directed by Provincial Command including days declared as days of Provincial/Territorial mourning;

c. Within a riding on the death of the member of the House of Commons or the member of the Provincial/territorial Legislature;

d. Within a district on the death of the District Commander or a former District Commander;

e. Within a zone on the death of the Zone Commander or former Zone Commander;

f. At a Branch on the death of a member of the Branch or Ladies Auxiliary, and at the discretion of the Branch on the death of a veteran or member of the Canadian Armed Forces;

g. The flag shall be flown at half-mast from the day of death to the day of the funeral or memorial service, except on the death of the Sovereign, when it is raised to full-mast for the day on which the accession of the new Monarch is proclaimed.
930. Remembrance Day. It is now Canadian Government policy that all external Canadian Flags are to be flown at half-mast on Remembrance Day “to honour the memory of all Canadians who have served their country in times of war”. The policy is as follows:

a. The Canadian Flag will be flown at half-mast on all federal government buildings and establishments across Canada from sunrise to sunset on Remembrance Day;

b. Should half-masting occur near a cenotaph or at another site where Remembrance services are being observed, half-masting can occur from 11:00 a.m. (or according to the prescribed order of service) and extend until sunset on November 11;

c. The flag on the Peace Tower will fly at half-mast from the commencement of the Remembrance Day service at the National War Memorial in Ottawa, Ontario, and remain in that position until sunset.

931. Legion Policy. In order to conform to this Government policy the Legion policy for half-masting the Canadian Flag on Remembrance Day is as follows:

a. Canadian Flags flown outside Legion establishments where Remembrance Day services will not occur will be flown at half-mast for the day;

b. External Canadian Flags flown at Branches or cenotaphs where a Remembrance Service will occur will be flown at full-mast until the playing of the first note of the Last Post, and then lowered as per custom. The flags will be raised to the full-mast position on the first note of Rouse and remain so during the playing of the Royal Anthem and march past if applicable;

c. Canadian Flags referred to above are to be lowered to half-mast following the Remembrance Day Service for the remainder of the day;

932. Vimy Ridge Day. The federal government enacted legislation in 2003 declaring April 9th Vimy Ridge Day, a “National Day of Remembrance” to commemorate this famous battle where Canadians did what others could not; capture Vimy Ridge. The Canadian Flag, on the Peace Tower, will be flown at half mast on 9 April from sunrise to sunset. Legion Branches are to fly their Canadian Flags at half mast on 9 April from sunrise to sunset.
MEMORIAL AND FUNERAL SERVICES

933. Unless there has been a specific request for another flag, a casket will be draped with the Canadian Flag. The Flag should be 4½ ft x 9 ft (1.4 m x 2.8 m) in size. The canton should be draped over the upper left corner of the casket and the Flag should be removed before the casket is lowered into the grave or after the service at a crematorium.

934. When Legion Banners are draped on occasions of memorial or funeral services, black crepe or mourning ribbon 54 inches long and 6 inches wide (135 cm x 15 cm) is used, tied in a bow, just below the spike of the pike.

THE COLOUR PARTY

935. The flags used by The Royal Canadian Legion are referred to as Colours and our Colours are as follows:

a. The Canadian Flag;
b. The Red Ensign (1922 - 1957);
c. The Royal Union Flag;
d. The appropriate Provincial or Territorial flag(s);
e. The United Nations Flag;
f. The NATO Flag;
g. The Legion Banner.

936. In addition there may be enhanced Colour Parties that, in addition to the flags referred to above, carry all other Provincial and Territorial flags.

937. The Dominion Command Colour Party carries 19 flags - the six colours and the 13 Provincial and Territorial flags.

Note - While the composition of the Legion Colour Party remains unchanged, Legion activities may include other flags and banners in a parade that would follow the Legion Colour Party. The placement of such other flags and banners is at the discretion of the Legion organizers so long as they follow the Legion Colour Party.

938. The Colour Party may be commanded by one of the following persons.

a. A Sergeant-at-Arms;
b. A Colour Party Commander; or,
c. The Comrade carrying the Canadian Flag.
939. The term Colour Party is to be interpreted to mean any of the appointments noted above and the group of persons carrying the flags.

940. Dress and Deportment. Members of the Colour Party, including the Colour Party Commander and Parade Commander, shall wear Legion dress as shown in Chapter 1 of this manual. A Lapel Poppy shall be worn on the Legion blazer; gloves or gauntlets and slings, are to be worn when handling the Colours.

941. Comrades selected to be part of the Colour Party must receive training that addresses basic drill movements, flag protocol and flag drill. The information addressing these drill movements may be found in Chapters 9 and 10 of this manual.

942. Parading the Colours. The Colours are paraded on the following occasions.

a. At the Opening and Closing Ceremonies of Legion meetings;

b. On Legion parades such as a Church Parade, Decoration Day, Memorial Day, Remembrance Day and related ceremonial occasions;

c. Colours may also be paraded at community, provincial/territorial or national events that are considered important;

d. At the discretion of a Branch President, Zone or District Commander, Provincial or Dominion Command President when it is believed that the image of the Legion will be enhanced by the presence of a Colour Party.

943. Parades. When the Colours are on parade they may be carried as described below.

a. When a parade is standing at attention, the Colours may be at the ORDER or the CARRY;

b. When an inspection is taking place the Colours shall be at the CARRY;

c. When on the march the Colours shall be at the Carry;

d. On occasions when the command “EYES RIGHT/LEFT” is given to a marching contingent, the command does not apply to members of a colour party who are carrying colours. Colour bearers are to face forward at all times.
944. Salutes. On occasions when a General Salute is played the Colours are let fly.

945. Dipping of the Legion Banner. It is Legion policy, as directed by Dominion Convention and Dominion Executive Council, to dip the Legion Banner during the playing of the “Last Post” for the purpose of Remembrance. If more than one Legion Banner is being carried, then ALL are to be dipped.

When the first note of the “Last Post” is sounded, the Legion Banner is dipped in a slow and dignified manner, held in the dipped position during the Silence, and recovered in a slow and dignified manner when the first note of “Rouse” is sounded. The Legion Banner should achieve the Carry position on the last note of “Rouse.” (Also see Section 614)

946. The Legion Banner should not be allowed to touch the ground.

PARADES

947. Parade Formation. When The Royal Canadian Legion is on parade the members parading form up in three ranks. The number of members present will determine the number of contingents required to exercise adequate control over the parade. As a guide it is recommended that no more than 50 members march as a contingent. Each contingent will be under the control and direction of a Commander.

948. Marching On The Colours. Prior to receiving the order to march the Colours on parade, the Colour Party will have formed up in an area adjacent to the designated parade forming up point. At the designated moment the Parade Commander will give the order “MARCH ON THE COLOURS”.

949. The Colour Party marches to a predetermined location within the parade and the Colours will be at the Carry. If a band is present appropriate music is to be played. The official march of The Royal Canadian Legion is “UNITY” (see page 163).

950. Once the Colour Party reaches the designated location and is properly positioned it shall act on the Parade Commander’s commands.
951. As stated the Colour Party is under the command of the Parade Commander; however there are four occasions when the Colour Party must take independent action which are:

a. During an inspection the Colour Party Commander shall order the Colours held at the CARRY;
b. Prior to stepping off on the march the Colour Party Commander shall order the Colours held at the CARRY;
c. When required to move to a flank independently, the Colour Party shall do so on the Colour Party Commander’s word of command;
d. Changing the hand that is holding a flag on the march.

952. Marching Off The Colours. At the conclusion of a parade, the Parade Commander gives the order “MARCH OFF THE COLOURS”.

The Colour Party Commander gives the appropriate order(s) - ie. CARRY COLOURS, if required directs a RIGHT OR LEFT TURN, QUICK MARCH to move the Colour Party to a designated area adjacent to the parade for dismissal. If a band is present appropriate music is to be played.

LARGE ASSEMBLIES

953. General. A procedure exists for an enhanced Colour Party (one that carries all Legion related flags) to parade the Colours to the area set aside for the head table and deposit and retrieve the Colours at the appropriate times. The reference for the manner in which flags have been numbered is shown at Figure TC-1 and the procedure is shown in the diagram at Figure 9-3. There is a requirement for the Colour Party to rehearse the procedure and the rehearsal should occur after the hall has been prepared for the assembly.

954. Marching On The Colours. The Sergeant-at-Arms forms up the Colour Party at the rear of the hall being used for the assembly.

a. Once the assembly has been called to order, the Chairman will give the command “MARCH ON THE COLOURS”. The Sergeant-at-Arms, in a clear and strong voice, orders “CARRY COLOURS ...... QUICK MARCH”. If a band is present appropriate music is to be played. The bandmaster’s cue to commence playing is the word of command “MARCH”; therefore a clear and strong voice is necessary;

b. As shown in Figure 9-3, the colour party, in single file, marches along the centre aisle. Upon reaching the head table area of the assembly, the file turns right, marches to the end of the head table, and must manoeuvre in a manner that will permit them to move behind the head table area to the applicable flag base. The Sergeant-at-Arms moves independently to a position in front of the head table area, halts and controls the Colour Party from this position;

Note - BREAKING THE COLOURS – When the colours are being posted for large assemblies, meetings and conventions, if possible, they should be placed in such a position so that no one can Break the Colours by walking through them. Should this not be possible, then members are to walk around behind the colours to reach the stage or head table area, and not through them. At no time should members walk through the colours once they have been posted for Legion meetings or Conventions. The colours should also be placed in such a position as to not impede the sight line of the members attending meetings or conventions.

c. When the flag bases have been reached, the Colour Bearers mark time and the band ceases playing music. The Sergeant-at-Arms, ensuring that a standard pause is observed, orders “HALT ..... INWARDS TURN ..... DEPOSIT COLOURS”;

d. When the Colours are deposited in the flag bases and adjustments have been completed, the Sergeant-at-Arms orders “ATTENTION”;

e. The chairman orders “COLOUR PARTY WILL RETIRE”;

f. The Sergeant-at-Arms orders “RIGHT TURN ..... QUICK MARCH”. The band plays appropriate music. The file steps off, marches out in front of the head table area, and along the centre aisle to the rear of the assembly hall. The Sergeant-at-Arms marches to the rear of the Colour Party;

g. The band ceases playing when the Colour Party reaches the rear of the assembly area where the Colour Party is halted and fallen out.
Marching Off The Colours. To recover the Colours at the Closing Ceremony and upon direction from the Chairman, the Colour Party marches in single file to, and is halted behind the Colour for which each bearer has responsibility. The Commands “RETRIEVE COLOURS...... RIGHT TURN...... QUICK MARCH” are given. The Colour Party departs via the same route as they departed after depositing the colours at the Opening Ceremony. Music is played, and once the Colour Party has reached the rear of the assembly hall the Colour Party is ordered to “HALT” and the music ceases. The Sergeant-at-Arms dismisses the Colour Party.

CONVENTIONS

Prior to the opening of a convention the Provincial and Territorial flags that are not included with the Colours are positioned on the stage or, as circumstances may dictate, to the rear of the area set aside for the head table. A Canadian Flag is placed at each end of the line of flags. These flags remain in position for the duration of the Convention, Figure 9-4 refers.

In preparation for the marching on of the Legion Colours, flag bases are positioned in front of the stage or head table area as indicated in Figure 9-4.
Marching On The Colours. Once the Convention has been called to order, the Chairman will order “MARCH ON THE COLOURS”. The Sergeant-at-Arms will order "CARRY COLOURS ..... QUICK MARCH". The colour party marches along the centre aisle of the room, in single file, carrying the flags in this order - 1, 2, 3, P, 18,19, 20 and 1. These are the only flags that are marched on and marched off at a Convention.

a. On reaching the front of the stage or head table area, bearers 1, 2, 3 and P wheel left and bearers 18, 19, 20 and 1 wheel right. They continue marching to their positions behind the flag holders, halt and turn inward;

b. The Sergeant-at-Arms orders “DEPOSIT COLOURS”. The bearers deposit and adjust the Colours;

c. The Sergeant-at-Arms orders “ATTENTION”;

d. The Chairman orders “COLOUR PARTY WILL RETIRE”;

f. The bearers meet at the centre aisle of the room, make right and left wheels and continue marching to the rear of the assembly hall. The Sergeant-at-Arms marches at the rear of the Colour Party.
Marching Off The Colours. The procedure used to recover the Colours is the same as described at Section 956.

OTHER OCCASIONS

The procedures outlined above may be modified to suit local conditions.

ORDER OF PRECEDENCE

Provincial and Territorial Flags. If more than one Provincial or Territorial flag are paraded they must be displayed in their order of precedence. The order of precedence is as described at Section 908.

United States. The precedence of flags for Branches and posts in the United States is:

a. The United States Flag;
b. The Canadian Flag;
c. The Red Ensign (1922 - 1957);
d. The Royal Union Flag;
e. The United Nations Flag;
f. The NATO Flag;
g. The Legion Banner.

THE BRANCH COLOUR PARTY

Branch Colour Party formations may be structured as shown in the following illustrations.

MASSED BRANCH COLOUR PARTY

A massed Branch colour party proceeds as follows on the march.
JOINT BRANCH/POST PARADES

965. In Canada, USA posts carry the American Flag (4) in the position of the provincial flag.

966. In the USA, the American flag takes precedence for both the Branch and post colour parties. A provincial flag is not carried.

CONSECRATION OF COLOURS (DRUMHEAD SERVICE)

967. The Parade to the Location of the Ceremony. The parade FALLS-IN at an area adjacent to location of ceremony in two groups with the band (if available) on the right. The Colours are MARCHED-ON to a position in front of the band while the band plays appropriate music. The Parade is now ready for the MARCH-ON, Figure 9-10 refers.
a. The Parade moves to the right and marches into position, Figure 9-11 refers;

b. When all members are in position for the ceremony, the Colour Party Commander gives the command “ORDER COLOURS”. The Parade Commander then orders “PARADE STAND AT EASE ... PARADE STAND EASY”. The Colour Party acts on this order;

c. Procedure for the Ceremony. The Parade Commander brings the Parade to “ATTENTION”.
The Colours are brought to the Carry. The Parade Commander orders “PARADE SALUTE”. The Band plays “The Royal Anthem”, the officers in charge salute;

d. The Branch president moves from a position on the right side of the altar (constructed from the drums) to a position in front. The order is then given “PLACE COLOURS”. On this order the flags individually and, in the sequence that follows - the Legion Banner, the NATO Flag, the UN Flag, the Provincial/territorial Flag, the Royal Union Flag, the Red Ensign and the Canadian Flag - are taken from the Colour Bearers by the Colour Party Commander and handed to the Branch President, who places them on the altar. The Colour Party Commander returns to his designated position;

THE PARADE COMMANDER: (addresses the Chaplain)

On behalf of The Royal Canadian Legion, will the Chaplain bid God’s blessing on the Colours.

THE CHAPLAIN:

We are ready to do so.

THE PARADE COMMANDER:

PARADE REMOVE HEADDRESS ... STAND AT EASE ... STAND EASY.

e. The Chaplain performs the Consecration Ceremony.

On completion of the Consecration Ceremony, the Chaplain moves to the front of the altar;

THE PARADE COMMANDER:

PARADE ATTENTION ... REPLACE HEADDRESS ... STAND AT EASE ... STAND EASY.

(The members on parade adjust their headdress)

THE PARADE COMMANDER:

PARADE ATTENTION.

f. The Chaplain removes the flags from the altar in the following sequence - the Canadian Flag, the Red Ensign, the Royal Union Flag, the Provincial/territorial Flag, the United Nations Flag, the NATO Flag and the Legion Banner. He passes each flag to the Branch President individually who accepts each flag in a kneeling position with the right knee on the ground. As each flag is received the Branch President rises and places the flag in the sling of the Colour Bearer. Each flag is accepted at the Carry;

g. When all flags have been returned to the Colour Bearers;

THE PARADE COMMANDER:

PARADE SALUTE.

h. The Band plays “O Canada”; the officers in charge salute. On completion of “O Canada”, the salute is completed.

969. The March Past. (see Figure 9-12) The Parade Commander orders all groups to turn right. The Colour party moves to its position ahead of the first group. The officers take up their positions. The Band stands firm. The Parade Commander orders the Parade to MARCH PAST. The standard order is:

THE ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION WILL MARCH PAST IN COLUMN OF ROUTE..... BY THE RIGHT.... QUICK.... MARCH.

a. When the Parade has moved off, the Band steps off and marches at the rear of the Parade;

b. Upon reaching the first saluting marker, the contingents perform an EYES RIGHT in succession of contingents, the officers in charge salute, and the Colours are let fly;

c. Upon reaching the second marker, the contingents are given an EYES FRONT in succession by contingent, the officers in charge complete their salute, and the Colours are CAUGHT;

d. The Parade marches to the location where it was formed, the Colours are MARCHED-OFF, and the Parade is DISMISSED.
Basic Drill Movements

WORDS OF COMMAND

1001. Words of command must be given in a clear and loud voice that is precise. The commands are given in two distinct parts with a short pause between each. They are:

a. The Cautionary Command which notifies the comrades that a drill movement will occur;

b. The Executive Command which is a short, sharp order that directs the comrades to perform the drill movement;

c. Examples of Cautionary and Executive Commands are:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Cautionary</th>
<th>Executive</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ATTEENNNNNNNN</td>
<td>SHUN</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>COLOUR PARTY CARRYEEE</td>
<td>COLOURS</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PARAAADE</td>
<td>HALT</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

d. When large groups are parading it is normal to provide an additional warning order to ensure that all are aware of what is about to happen. An example is -

| PARAAADE    | ATTEENNNNN | SHUN |

1002. When on the march, executive orders must be given at precisely the right moment. For example:

a. HALT, EYES RIGHT/LEFT/FRONT, RIGHT TURN/INCLINE and FORWARD are given as the left foot is forward and on the ground;

b. LEFT TURN/INCLINE, ABOUT TURN and MARK TIME are given as the right foot is forward and on the ground.

1003. There is a skill to giving drill orders which is a combination of self confidence, voice projection and timing. This skill can be achieved through practice and experience.
1004. Position of Attention - Figure 10-1. The position of attention is one of readiness in expectation of a word of command. Alert exactness in this position is important and, therefore, members should not be kept at attention longer than necessary. At the position of attention:

a. The heels are together and in line;
b. The feet are turned out to form an angle of 30 degrees;
c. The body is balanced and weight is evenly distributed on both feet;
d. The shoulders are level, square to the front;
e. The arms are hanging as straight as their natural bend will allow with elbows and wrists touching the body;
f. The wrists are straight, the back of the hands held outwards;
g. The fingers are aligned, touching the palm of the hand, thumbs placed on the side of the forefingers at the middle joint with the thumbs and back of the fingers touching the thighs lightly and the thumbs in line with the seam of the trousers;
h. The head is held erect, neck touching the back of the collar, eyes steady, looking at their height, and straight to the front;
i. No part of the body should be strained.

1005. Position of the Stand at Ease - Figure 10-2.

The position of standing at ease is an intermediate position between attention and standing easy. It allows no relaxation, but can be maintained, without strain, for a longer time than the position of attention.
1006. On the command “STAND AT - EASE”:
   a. Bend the left knee;
   b. Carry the left foot to the left, straightening it in double time, and place it smartly flat on the ground, with the inside of the heels 10 inches (25 cm) apart;
   c. Simultaneously, with a quick motion, bring the arms behind the back, stretched to their full extent, and place the back of the right hand in the palm of the left, with thumbs crossed right over left, the fingers together and extended;
   d. Balance the body with the weight evenly distributed on both feet.

1007. Stand Easy. The position of stand easy is ordered when it is desirable to permit the members to relax. This command is only given when the members are in the position of stand at ease.

1008. On the command “STAND - EASY”:
   a. Close the hands and bring the arms to the position of attention;
   b. Following a standard pause, relax.

1009. Stand at Ease from Stand Easy. On a cautionary command such as “ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION”, “COLOUR PARTY”, “PARADE”, etc., assume the position of stand at ease.

1010. Attention from Stand at Ease.
   On the command “ATTEN - TION”:
a. Bend the left knee and shift balance to the right foot;
b. Straighten the left leg in double time, place the foot smartly on the ground, toe touching first, followed by the heel, and with heels aligned;
c. Simultaneously, with a quick motion, bring the arms and hands to position of attention.

1011. Remove Headdress - Figure 10-3. The order to remove headdress may be given when it is customary to do so. This practice is normally performed at the call of the Parade Commander, Sergeant-at-Arms or person in charge.

1012. On the command "REMOVE - HEADDRESS":

   a. Bring the right hand to the front of the headdress by the shortest route;
   b. Grasp the headdress between the thumb and fingers, with the fingers aligned and parallel to the shoulders as much as practicable;
   c. After the standard pause, maintaining the bend in the right arm, cut the upper arm to the right side of the body and the forearm parallel to the ground;

   d. Bring the right hand to the centre of the body;
   e. Maintaining the grasp on the headdress, hold the headdress above the hand and in the centre of the body.

1013. Replace Headdress.

   On the command "REPLACE - HEADDRESS":

   a. Replace the headdress using both hands;
b. Following a standard pause, resume the position of attention by cutting both arms to the side;
c. Comrades are then ordered to “STAND AT - EASE ... STAND - EASY”, at which time they adjust their headdress.

COMPLIMENTS AND WREATH-LAYING PROCEDURES

1014. Hand Saluting. With the paying of Compliments being formal marks of trust and courtesy, the military hand salute is noted as a traditional demonstration of showing respect and in particular, respect for office. Although the method of saluting varies under the circumstances, the paying of compliments is a fundamental requirement that is indispensable to service discipline.

1015. Method.

a. Unification of the Canadian Armed Forces brought us a different method of hand salute, with the head held high, bringing the right hand smartly to a position over the right eyebrow, with the palm facing down, the fingers fully extended and the elbow perpendicular to the shoulder. The motion is short way up – short way down. The Royal Canadian Legion has adopted this method. Saluting with arms is an entirely different discipline and because members don’t usually salute with arms, this section will deal only with the Hand Salute;

b. So, while methods do vary, a couple of things remain constant in delivering a Hand Salute;

i. The compliment is always offered by the junior ranking person to an officer or another senior positioned person. The person receiving the compliment will acknowledge the salute by returning it, providing that he is in uniform and wearing headdress. If not in uniform or in uniform but not wearing headdress, he will acknowledge the compliment by standing or sitting at attention for a brief moment;

ii. The Hand Salute is never offered unless the junior ranking person is in uniform complete with headdress. If not wearing headdress, the compliment will be offered by smartly coming to attention until the compliment is acknowledged.

c. In Canada, military compliments are only officially paid to the Sovereign; the Governor-General; members of the Royal Family; recognized foreign royalty; foreign heads of state or government; the Prime Minister; the Minister and Associate Minister of National Defence; Lieutenant-Governors and commissioned Officers as well as notable exceptions;

d. There are, of course, many exceptions including Remembrance parades; dealing with flags; at funeral services, etc. For those interested in the exceptions as they apply to the military, you can search on the internet for, “THE CANADIAN ARMED FORCES MANUAL OF DRILL AND CEREMONIAL” and you’ll find them.

1016. Legion Saluting.

a. The Legion, of course, recognizes saluting to be a form of presenting a greeting and paying respect and as noted the Legion adopted the current Canadian Armed Forces form of the Hand Salute;

b. For Legion purposes, saluting when wearing headdress will or will not be done on the following occasions;

i. Legion Officers in charge of formed parties or groups will salute during the playing of “O Canada”, “Last Post”, “Rouse”, the “Royal Anthem” and/or the “Vice Regal Salute” and during the march past;

ii. Legion members in Legion Dress, wearing headdress, who are spectators at an event and are not part of a formed body will salute during the playing of “O Canada”; “Last Post”; “Rouse”; the “Royal Anthem” and/or the “Vice Regal Salute”. It is also customary to salute the Colours as they are being marched past;

iii. Members formed up on parade and who are within a formed body shall not salute during the playing of “O Canada”, “Last Post”, “Rouse”, the “Royal Anthem” and/or the “Vice Regal Salute” nor during the march past. During a march past, these members, with the exception of those carrying colours in colour parties, will react to the command, “EYES RIGHT” or “EYES LEFT”;
iv. Further, members within a “Formed Body” shall not salute when Colours and/or the National Flag are paraded before the group. Only the senior member in charge of the group will salute;

Definition: A formed body is a parade structure of 2 or more ranks with a Senior member in charge.

v. Salutes will not be held during the “Silence”;
vi. Procedures for saluting at Funeral Services/Graveside Services are noted in this manual at Chapter 7;
vii. There may be other circumstances that require members to offer compliments. Members are advised to consult THE CANADIAN ARMED FORCES MANUAL OF DRILL AND CEREMONIAL for guidance.

1017. Why is it that Legion officers are rarely saluted?

a. Legion Officers are certainly saluted when they are reviewing parades, however, the likely answer is that we traditionally drop our rank at the door when we join the Legion. The secondary likely answer is that most current Legion Officers are not “commissioned officers” as prescribed in Canadian Armed Forces regulations;
b. In certain circumstances, normally parade oriented, it is appropriate for a Legion member to salute a Senior Legion Member or Military Officer/Dignitary out of respect for the Senior Office.

1018. Wreath laying.

a. There are many occasions when members will be called upon to either place a wreath or to be a wreath bearer. When placing a wreath, the person placing the wreath and the bearer should march together to the memorial or cenotaph, with the bearer slightly behind and to the left of the person placing the wreath. In certain circumstances, it would be permissible for the wreath bearer to march to the right of the person laying the wreath if that person required assistance to the designated area where the wreath is to be placed. The individuals will halt and the bearer will hand the wreath, with the ribbon or banner facing the person laying the wreath. The wreath layer will step forward if necessary and place the wreath in the designated location. Upon placing the wreath, the wreath layer and the bearer take one step backward, salute, turn right and march back to their position;

b. In some ceremonies, poppies are laid on wreaths that have been placed for that purpose. If this is to be the case, then the person placing the poppy shall march up to the wreath, halt and kneel forward and place the poppy. After the poppy has been placed on the wreath, the person shall resume the position, take one-step backward, salute, turn right and march back to their position;

c. The above-noted wreath-laying procedures are appropriate for outdoor or indoor cenotaph services, providing that the bearer is wearing headdress. For any Legion purpose, members not wearing headdress shall not salute but will acknowledge the situation by coming smartly to the position of attention.

1019. Saluting at the Halt - Figure 10-4. To perform a salute:

a. Bend the right elbow and open the palm of the right hand;

b. Force the right hand by its shortest route to the forehead so that;

i. The palm of the hand is facing down;

ii. The thumb and fingers are fully extended and close together;

iii. The tip of the second finger is one inch (2.5 cm) above and in line with the outside of the right eyebrow;

iv. The hand, wrist, and forearm are in a straight line;

v. The elbow is in line with the shoulders;

vi. The upper arm is parallel to the ground.

c. To complete the salute, bring the hand sharply to the position of attention by the shortest route without slapping the thigh, closing the hand after the forearm is lowered below the shoulder level.
Saluting on the March - Figure 10-5. On the march, the mechanics of the salute are the same as for Saluting at the Halt, but includes the following movements:

a. Complete a 30 inch pace with the right foot;
b. Complete a 30 inch pace with the left foot;
c. Cut the left arm to the side;
d. Simultaneously, cut the right arm to the side and then up to the salute in one continuous movement, turning the head right/left as far as possible without straining, as applicable;
e. The left arm remains stationary throughout the salute;
f. To complete the salute complete a 30 inch pace with the right foot; and cut the right arm to the side, turning the head and eyes to the front and continue marching.
1021. Eyes Right/Left — Figure 10-6. On the command “EYES - RIGHT/LEFT”:

a. Complete a 30 inch pace with the right foot;
b. Complete a 30 inch pace with the left foot;
c. Simultaneously turn the head and eyes to the right/left as far as possible without straining;

NOTE: On occasions when the command “EYES-RIGHT/LEFT” is given to a marching contingent, the command does not apply to members of a colour party who are carrying colours. Colour bearers are to face forward at all times.

d. Look directly into the eyes of the personage being saluted;
e. Continue swinging the arms;

NOTE: The leading person on the directing flank (the right or left marker) shall maintain the head and eyes to the front to keep direction. The person in command of the group salutes.

f. On the command “EYES - FRONT”;

i. Complete a 30 inch pace with the right foot;
ii. Complete a 30 inch pace with the left foot;
iii. Simultaneously, cut the head and eyes smartly to the front.
1022. Turning at the Halt - Figures 10-7 and 10-8.

On the command “RIGHT - TURN”:

a. Brace both knees, arms are at the sides and body erect;

b. Turn 90 degrees to the right by pivoting on the right heel and left toe, simultaneously, raising the left heel and right toe;

c. On the completion of the movement, place the weight of the body on the right foot and brace the left leg with the heel off the ground;

d. Following a standard pause, bend the left knee, straightening it in double time, smartly placing the left foot beside the right to assume the position of attention;

e. The “LEFT - TURN” is achieved through the same movements, using the opposite feet and directions;

f. The “LEFT/RIGHT - INCLINE” is completed doing the same movements; however, the turn is only 45 degrees;

g. The “ABOUT - TURN” is the same as for the right turn except that the pivot to the right is made through 180 degrees. Balance is maintained by bracing the legs and locking the thighs.

1023. Dressing - Figure 10-9. On the command “RIGHT - DRESS”:

a. The right hand member of the front rank stands fast

b. Following a standard pause, the right file stands fast while the remainder turns head and eyes to the right as far as possible without straining;

c. Simultaneously, the front rank, except for the right-hand member, shoots the right arm its full extent behind the shoulder of the member on the right, hand closed as in the position of attention, back of the hand upwards and arm parallel to the ground;

d. Following a standard pause, the right-hand member of the front rank stands fast while the remainder takes up correct alignment, distance and covering, taking short, quick paces until they are in the correct position, movement starting with the left foot. The distance is correct when the right hand touches the left shoulder of the person on the right.

1024. As a guide to taking up correct alignment, each member, except those in the right file, moves to a position from which the lower portion of the face of the second person to the right can just be seen. Correct covering is taken up by glancing to the front without moving the head.

1025. Dressing can be performed in one of three formats:

a. Standard dressing, as described in the previous sections;

b. “ELBOW DRESSING ... RIGHT - DRESS”;
   i. The front rank, except for the right-hand member, places the right hand on the hip, fingers closed, pointed down and extended forward, thumb to the rear and elbow straight out to the side;
   ii. The point of the elbow touches the member on the right when the distance is correct.

c. “SHOULDER DRESSING ... RIGHT - DRESS” - each person’s arms remain at the position of attention and the correct distance only allows enough room between members for freedom of movement.

1026. On the command “LEFT - DRESS” - the same drill movements are followed except the head and eyes are turned left and the left arm is used. The left-hand member/file stands fast, as applicable.

1027. When dressing is complete, the command “EYES - FRONT” is given. Members shall snap heads and eyes to the front and, as applicable, cut arms smartly to the position of attention without slapping the thighs.

1028. Marching and Halting in Quick Time - On The March - Figure 10-10. When marching, comrades shall maintain the body erect with head and eyes to the front.

1029. On the command “QUICK - MARCH”:

a. Shoot the left foot forward one 15 inch pace, striking the heel on the ground first and keeping the toe pointed directly forward;

b. Simultaneously, swing the right arm straight forward and the left straight to the rear, waist high;

c. Continue marching with subsequent paces of 30 inches each;

d. Swing the arms forward successively in a straight line from the shoulder, front to rear, with hands closed as in the position of attention;

e. Maintain dressing by the directing flank.
Marching and Halting in Quick Time - The Halt - Figure 10-11. On the command “HALT”:

a. Check the forward movement by placing the right foot flat on the ground naturally, using the heel as a brake;

b. Take a 15 inch pace with the left foot, placing it flat on the ground;

c. Bend the right knee, straightening it in double time;

d. Simultaneously, cut the arms to the sides as quickly as possible and assume the position of attention.

Halting in Quick Time

1031. Marking Time - Figure 10-12. Marking time in quick time is carried out at the same cadence as marching in quick time. On command “MARK - TIME”:

   a. Take a 15 inch pace with the left foot, placing the foot flat on the ground naturally;
   b. Bring the right foot into the left in a straight-leg manner, not scraping the ground;
   c. Simultaneously, cut the arms to the sides, assuming the position of attention;
   d. Continue to mark time, maintaining the same cadence, placing the toe on the ground before the heel as each leg is lowered;
   e. Continue to mark time until the command “FOR - WARD” or “HALT” is given.

1032. On the command “FORWARD”:

   a. Straighten the right leg and assume the position of attention;

   b. Take a further mark time pace with the left foot;
   c. Straighten the right leg in double time, assuming the position of attention.
1034. Turns on the March in Quick Time - Figures 10-13 and 10-14. On the command "ABOUT - TURN":

a. Take a 15 inch pace with the left foot;
b. Bring the right foot in to the left foot in a straight-leg manner above the ground, to the position of attention;
c. Simultaneously, cut the arms to the sides and maintain them there throughout the turn;
d. Pivot on the sole of the right foot to force the body through a turn of 90 degrees to the right, simultaneously bending the left knee;
e. Lower the left leg smartly to the ground to assume the position of attention;
f. Pivot on the sole of the left foot to force the body through a turn of 90 degrees to the right, simultaneously bending the right knee;
g. Lower the right leg smartly to the ground to assume the position of attention;
h. Take a 15 inch pace with the left foot in the new direction and continue marching.

COLOUR PARTY DRILL
